TWO TAKEN AS SLAYERS ARE FREED

Policeman J. F. McCarthy Shot to Death, Presumably By Negroes, During Row in Center St. Lodging-House

Liquor Found in the Room Where Murder Occurred Believed to Contain Dope; Reward Will Be Offered

J. F. MCCARTHY. The officer, who had a wife and two small children, was found mortally wounded in a rear room of the lodging house by policemen who had been called to the place by a mysterious telephone call.

The room was in a state of disorder, showing that a struggle had taken place in which the officer tried to defend himself against assailants, who first beat him and then fired five shots into his back.

WARD PLANNED FOR BEST OF SLAYERS

Chief of Police James T. Drew announced that he will ask the city council to advertise an award for the capture and conviction of the murderers. Commissioner Frank Colburn stated that he will introduce a resolution authorizing a reward of $250 at the next meeting of the council.

The following is a list of members of the Oakland police force who have been killed, in the performance of their duty, within the last twenty years: Officers James Smith, James Fenton, Charles Williams, R. F. Gusha, George White, C. G. Gardanence, J. F. McCarthy.

The police announced that they found a quantity of whisky in the room in which McCarthy was killed. The liquor is believed to contain cocaine and will be chemically analyzed.

CARD TO EXCLAIM "DON'T BEAT ME UP"

"Don't beat me up that way" are the words which Mrs. Portia Smith, colored, who lives next door to the lodging house, heard somebody cry amid the sound of blows and furniture being overturned. Mrs. Smith also told the police that she saw three negroes running out of the house, one with a revolver in his hand. The men departed and ran in different directions, she said.

DISPUTE OVER LOITERING TICKET

Nothing definite is known as the causes which drew the policeman to the room. It is believed that the dispute was over a loitering ticket. A woman who lives in the room where McCarthy was killed, said that she saw three negroes running out of the house, one with a revolver in his hand. The men departed and ran in different directions, she said.

Film Actress May Wed Champ

Beautiful DORIS DEANE, who refuses to confirm report of betrothal to Jack Dempsey.

DORIS DEANE TO WED DEMPSEY?

Beautiful Brunette Movie Star Smiles and Remarks On Dumbbells.

To be or not to be is once more the question.

Is Jack Dempsey going to bring a bride to the home of "Ma" Kearns here in the person of Doris Deane, beautiful picture actress, or isn't he?

Miss Deane has returned to her work after a visit in the east with the world's champion prizefighter, and has refused either to confirm or deny the persistent rumors that she is the next Mrs. Dempsey.

Dempsey meanwhile is maintaining a dignified and pugilistic silence about the matter, and leaving matters rest where they were when he delivered a farewell kiss to the screen star at Sixteenth street station last July on his way east.

Of all the announced seekers after the Dempsey marital crown Miss Deane was the one chosen by the prize fighter for bestowal of osculatory honors, and thorough began to be looked upon with favor by the friends of the pugilist in this city.

Recently interest was stirred up over the departure of Miss Deane for the East. Rumor had it that she would return to the land of studios as Mrs. Dempsey. She arrived back today as plain Miss Deane, but the rumor will not down.

"I met Jack in the East," she admitted, but when asked if Dempsey had made a marriage proposal she made an irrelevant remark about being taken for a "dumb-bell." Apparently friends of the couple assert that they correspond continually.

Harding Candidate In 1924, Says Hoover

PALO ALTO, Dec. 1.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Republican presidential candidate in 1924 "ought to be" Calvin Coolidge, Secretary of Commerce Herbert C. Hoover said in an interview at his home here today.

"Hoover said, by that time (1924), the American electorate will be highly appreciative of the sane and progressive character of the policies that will have brought this country through the reconstructive period."

Flames Raze Ohio City's Mill District

TOLEDO, O., Dec. 1.—(By the Associated Press.)—Fanned by a strong gale, fire of unknown origin today is sweeping the factory district of this city. The Toledo Steel and Tube Company plant and the Sandusky Cooperage and Lumber Company buildings have been destroyed and the flames are still spreading.

Explosion of several drums of carbide in the steel plant hampered the firemen's work. Damage approximating $200,000 already has been done.

RETIREMENT HINT DENIED BY SCHWAB

Steel Magnate, Upon Arrival in Oakland, Refutes Report He Will Quit Active Control of Big Interests

Discussion of Rumored Extensions to Bethlehem's Alameda Plant Avoided; Tynan's Work Is Praised

Charles M. Schwab, steel magnate and head of the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation, arrived here today on a pleasure trip and denied that he has retired from the chief directorship of the steel interests in his control.

In his first public statement made in the drawing room of his private car, which was attached to the Pacific Limited, Schwab said:

"When I was reported as retiring I meant only that I was withdrawing from the actual detailed management of things. I believe that Mr. Grace, now president of the corporation is one of the greatest steel men in the country. It is such men as he who are looking after things and I'm going to be near where I can consult and encourage."

"I left New York just about the time of the acquisition of the Midvale property which increased the capitalization of our company to $500,000,000, and I am glad to say that the corporation is in a position to state that I have been looking over some mining property."

Schwab was breathing conservative optimism and declared the position of the country is the brightest.

"Lack of unemployment and the adjustment that industry is making following the deflation process of post-war times give hope of the brightest kind of a future for the United States," he said.

INTEREST SHOWN IN COAST POWER

He expressed interest in possibilities of developing the steel industry on the coast by use of hydro-electric power.

"The smelting of steel by hydro-electric power is feasible for the Pacific coast on a large scale," he declared, "providing the power is furnished cheaply enough."

"The Boulder Canyon project will give a great impetus to the development of cheap electricity in the west. Under the proposed plan, the government will build a dam, and private capital will distribute the electricity. Thus it can be furnished much cheaper than at present."

"With quantities of pig iron available from China and other sources, the coast faces a great industrial future by reason of its wonderful hydro-electric resources."

Schwab is traveling in his own private car and was accompanied by his wife and some business associates of Nevada, including Dr. M. L. Ward, president of the Tonopah Extension Mining Company, and Mrs. Ward, John Kirchen, manager of the company, and Mrs. Kirchen.

The party was met here by Joseph J. Tynan, general manager of the Union Plant of the Bethlehem Corporation, who was married yesterday to Ruth Edna Williams, a student at the University of California. Mrs. Tynan did not accompany her husband, although their honeymoon was postponed in order that he might meet the magnate.

Schwab said that his coming to California was solely on a pleasure trip and declined to discuss business save in a general way and refused to discuss the rumored extensions of the Alameda plant of the Bethlehem Corporation. Schwab's itinerary provides for a visit in San Francisco, a short visit to Los Angeles, thence to Joplin, Mo.

JOHN A. KIRCHEN, INCIDENT TOLD.

"I am happy to get here," said Schwab. "I like California and the bay cities. I like San Francisco. The people here are very hospitable."

His most cordial, indeed, San Francisco gave me my strongest support. I am here to see my old friend, Tynan, and to congratulate him on his marriage. I am sure I wish him every happiness in the world."

"I believe in happiness. For twenty years I have practiced being in a happy frame of mind, and I found that I can do things better. I might tell a little story of an incident during the early part of the great war which I think constitutes one of the greatest romances in business."

"It was when Mr. Tynan contracted to build ten submarines for the British government. There was some question of a violation of neutrality, as we had not entered the war, and he quickly arranged to do the construction at Montreal. He built those submarines in four and a half months, although under ordinary conditions the construction had previously taken never less than fifteen months."

RENO, Dec. 1.—"I'm purported to be rich, but it is not the wealth that pleases me most," was the declaration of Charles M. Schwab, head of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation, as he stepped out of his train last night.

"It's the satisfaction of work well done. I don't want any bronze tablets or marble monuments over me when I die. Let a string of smokestacks, mills and mines be my monument."

TURK WAR IS BLAMED TO BRITISH

Anglo-Greek Pact, Charged As Having Been Made By Lloyd George and Venizelos, Pledging Athens Aid

Turko-Bulgar Insurrectionists Attack Grecian Force and Are Repulsed; Former Premier Predicts Republic

ATHENS, Dec. 1.—Former Premier Venizelos today forecast a Greek republic, as the country was torn with dissension over trials and executions of war leaders.

"The people are ripe for a republic," he wrote friends in letters made public here.

Turko-Bulgar insurrectionist outbreaks in Salon added to the turmoil. The revolutionists attacked Greek troops, who repulsed them after killing 28. Thirteen of the Turk-Bulgars taken prisoner were later executed.

By FRANK E. MASON, International News Service Staff Correspondent.

PARIS, Dec. 1.—Revelations that former Premier Lloyd George of England, and former Premier Eleutherios Venizelos, of Greece, entered into a secret diplomatic agreement in 1920 by which Great Britain promised to support Greece in the war against Turkey, was contained in an Athens despatch printed by the Matin today.

According to the Athens correspondent of the Matin "there is evidence that the Greeks undertook their military adventure in Asia Minor at the suggestion of Britain, the Anglo-Greek Near East partnership promising the Greeks financial assistance to carry on the struggle."

GREECE TO SHARE IN TURK PARTITION

Greece, it was further stated, was promised equal shares in the subsequent division of Turkey. The cost for carrying on the war was to be imposed upon Turkey in the conference.

The Matin printed what purported to be the secret diplomatic reports of M. Venizelos while the negotiations with the British were in progress. These contain a letter from Venizelos dated June 19, 1920, in which the former premier reported that the British general staff council had technically advised the Greeks. Communications from Venizelos about the same time warned the Greek government that it could not expect any assistance from France and Italy and that the Greeks should be on the alert against invasion by bands of Bulgarian irregulars over the Thracian frontier.

BRITISH PROMISED GREEKS SUPPORT

The British, according to the Matin's revelations, agreed to protect Constantinople and the Turkish straits. Venizelos insisted that the old Ottoman empire be completely partitioned, leaving only Anatolian plateau under Turkish sovereignty.

While the Turco-Greek war was in progress, said the Matin despatch, the allies began to consider the advisability of lightening the original Turkish conditions and promising that Greece would force Turkey to accept the terms of the 1913 treaty and to demobilize the Kemal-ist army.

Reign of Terror Spreads in Athens

By LUTHER A. HUSTON, International News Service Staff Correspondent.

LONDON, Dec. 1.—Many rumors, one of them that a reign of terror has developed in Athens, were circulated today following the action of the Greek revolutionary committee in establishing a strict censorship in the Greek capital.

General Plastiras, leader of the Greek revolutionary committee, was said to be dominating the situation.

Greek revolutionary officials are becoming enraged not only at the former functionaries of the old Constantinian regime, whom they term "traitors guilty of mad acts of treason," but at the attempt of foreign powers to interfere.

Moors Put Spanish To Work on Roads

Bavarian Cities Fined By Allies

LONDON, Dec. 1.—(By the Associated Press.)—The allied governments have sent a note to Berlin notifying the German government of the imposition of fines of 500,000 gold marks each against Regensburg and Passau, Bavaria, because of the attacks upon the allied missions which visited those cities in search for concealed arms. The German government was informed that if these fines are not paid by December 10, the amounts will be withheld from the Rhineland's remittance to the Bavarian government.

MRS. WILLIAM HOENZOL LERN, who is making decided changes in the life and household of former German Kaiser at Doorn, and COUNT VON MOLTKE, who has departed.

EX-KAISER'S WIFE RUNS HOUSEHOLD

Sends Court Marshal Von Moltke From Doorn; Doctor to Go.

DOORN, Holland, Dec. 1.—(By the Associated Press.)—The first change in the Kaiser's household since Princess Hermine took over the reins is the departure of Count Von Moltke, the court marshal. The new "Empress" has signified her intention of instituting a regime which will be directly opposed to the policies of Von Moltke.

The dispute between Princess Hermine and the retiring marshal is said to have arisen over the question of whether the Kaiser should confine himself to Doorn castle. The former emperor's bride favored more freedom of movement for her husband, but this was contrary to the wishes of Von Moltke, who is regarded as responsible for the virtual imprisonment of Wilhelm within the garden walls.

Princess Hermine and her young daughter take daily walks outside the castle grounds, and she has appeared several times in the town of Doorn. The Kaiser has been frequently seen with her in parts of the grounds, and it is expected that she will soon prevail upon him to accompany her on trips to the village.

Another change in the household is the prospective departure of Dr. Haeceler, the court physician, who soon leaves the castle to take up his private practice in Amsterdam.

The new mistress of Doorn casts a close lively with all sorts of people during her daily walks, and is evidently desirous of making friends. She has a very pleasant manner on these occasions, visiting with any one who shows much interest in her new surroundings. She is already gaining popularity among the townspeople of Doorn, and many children of the village were guests at a recent party given in honor of her daughter's birthday.

30 SLAIN AS 2000 FIGHT IN MEXICO CITY STREETS; MUNICIPAL OFFICES BURN

Thirst-Frenzied Laborers and Their Wives Storm Civic Building and Pillaging Lasts Throughout Night

MACHINE GUNS STEM ATTACK

By FREDERICK G. NEUMIER, (United Press Staff Correspondent) (Copyright, 1922, by United Press.)

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 1.—Not since the "tragic ten days" of 1913, has Mexico City presented such a bloody aspect as dawn revealed this morning, after a night of sanguinary rioting.

The rising sun gleamed upon a shambles on the historic Zocalo before the portals of the smoke-grimmed, flame-scorched municipal palace.

Estimates of the dead ranged as low as twelve and as high as thirty. There was no way of telling accurately, as many of the dead had been borne away by their friends and many of the scores of wounded will die.

Rioters' Singing Outlasts Battle, Pillaging, Death

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 1.—Music bath claims to soothe the savage breast.

"To soften rocks, or bend a knotted oak."

William Converse, who penned this familiar couplet about the end of the seventeenth century, never heard Mexican music.

With their water service cut to one hour a day for the past week, 2000 Mexican workmen and women gathered here yesterday to voice a protest. Their lips were dry and their throats parched; they were frenzied with thirst. But they sang as they assembled.

Agitators suggested seizure of the municipal palace and the civic officials. They sang as they marched away to do violence. Armed police and soldiers met them as they reached the enclosure. And 2000 sang.

"Push the building," their leaders cried, and they swarmed forward singing, hurling rocks and beating the officers with clubs and their fists. Gasoline was poured over parts of the structure, while 2000 sang.

A ripple of fire comes from the building and rioters fell here and there. Yet 2000 sang. Panic followed and the rioters fled—singing.

Reorganizing, the mob paraded through the principal streets, shooting through windows and hurling rocks—and singing.

Many down the sound of breaking glass and splintering wood was interspersed with music—from parched throats.

PROGRESSIVES IN CONGRESS UNITE

Senate and House Members Organize to War On "Special Privilege."

By LAWRENCE MARTIN, United Press Staff Correspondent. WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—An organization pledged "to drive special privilege out of government and restore it to the people" was formed today by Progressive senators and house members. In a two-hour session at the capitol the Progressives, representing both parties, took these steps:

1.—Organized a Progressive bloc to function in the present and ensuing congresses.

2.—Announced a nation-wide campaign would be started for abolition of the electoral college, early meeting of newly elected congresses. Open and direct primaries and enactment of corrupt practices act.

3.—Served notice that the organization is entirely legislative, and is not even remotely a political step intended to result in formulation of a third party.

4.—Elected Senator Norris chairman for the present at least.

5.—Provided for immediate formulation of a legislative program by establishing subcommittees to deal with specific subjects, in co-operation with experts.

Thirteen senators and twenty-one house members and members elect attended the meeting. Mrs. Winifred Mason Huck, Chicago, the only woman in congress, was among them. Telegrams and letters were received from others unable to attend. Those who attended were:

Senators McNary, Sheppard, France, Owen, Norris, Spilseth, Frazier, Ladd, Capper, La Follette, Huddleston, Logan, Mead, Casey, Frear, Owen, Beck, Lampert, Schneider, Keller, Voigt, Reid, Nelson, McSwain, Sinclair, Cooper, Knud, Buck, Mackelinn, and Governor Blaine of Wisconsin.

Cook's Helper Kills Hatch Hetchy Worker

STOCKTON, Dec. 1.—(Special Telegram.)—Ragano, Hatch Hetchy tunnel worker, was shot and killed at midnight by Don Dushane, cook's helper, at 58, ten miles above Groveland. Dushane escaped, but officers say he cannot get away, as he is a stranger in the mountains and all roads and trails are guarded today by armed men.

The men quarreled over a missing suitcase Dushane accused Ragano of stealing. And Dushane charged his gun on Ragano, who was in the room.

Gunmen Raid Club; Shoot Down Two

CHICAGO, Dec. 1.—(By Associated Press.)—Fifteen gunmen invaded the waiters' club in the downtown district early today and without warning opened fire, killed Frank J. Ragan, manager of the club, and former president of the waiters' union, and shot Police Sergeant Archie Cooper just as he was about to enter the club.

At 7 o'clock this morning twenty men were under arrest, in connection with the killing.

by workmen making repairs. The first shot of the battle was a signal light over the scene.

The fire spread rapidly through the entire interior of the building, mounting from windows as the machine guns continued their grim chatter. The gunmen were driven out from the shelter of the palace by the blaze, but they had the crowd on the run and kept it going. Dense masses of humanity were packed in the entrances of the streets leading from the square, while behind them on the broad pavement some forms lay still and others crawled painfully on all fours seeking a hiding place.

Soldiers and police followed the retreating rivers, looting over the bodies of the wounded. They were under orders to disperse the crowd and prevent it from revolting. Large sections of the mob were so thoroughly frightened they thought only of flight. Isolated groups, however, set out to pillage the city.

SINGING MOBS CONTINUE PILLAGING THROUGH NIGHT.

Yelling and singing, they marched the principal business streets, shooting through windows and hurling rocks. These men had had their baptism of fire and were out for vengeance. Detachments of soldiers went through the streets at double quick, seeking to head them off. It was now past midnight, the glow of the burning palace lit the sky and the progress of the mobs could be traced by sound of shots, crashing glass, yells and screams, mingled with the shouting of women in groups.

Several of these isolated groups marched to the home of Dr. Alonzo C. Brown, the municipal president. Their way led through deserted streets, as merchants had put up their shutters and the people were keeping out of sight. Soldiers confronted the rioters before Dr. Brown's residence. They began firing. Eight rioters fell wounded. The rest fled.

By dawn it was believed the last of the mobs had been broken up.

Representative Mann, of Illinois, Dies Suddenly

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—Death last night ended the legislative career of Representative James R. Mann of the Second Illinois district, long rated as a giant of the House.

Returning here two weeks ago, from the opening of the special session of Congress, Mann, who had served his people for upwards of a quarter of a century, took part in the preliminary work of the House.

He was taken ill a week ago, however, and was forced to stay at home because of a cold, which he failed to shake off. His condition at first was not regarded as serious, and it was not until yesterday afternoon, after pneumonia had developed, that it became alarming. Early in the evening he rallied, but there was a change for the worse as the night wore on. Shortly before midnight, with his wife and his physicians at his bedside, the veteran of many a congressional battle died peacefully.

News of Mann's death was a shock to the House, for few of his most intimate friends knew of his illness, beyond the statement that he had been confined to his home by a cold. On the eve of the House vote Wednesday on the shipping bill Mann wanted to get out of bed and go there to be counted on its side. He was told to stay at home and that while his wife counsel would be helpful, there were votes enough in sight and he would be paired. But his thoughts were constantly on the work of the House.

Funeral arrangements had not been concluded at an early hour today, but it was understood that services would be held at the late Representative's home in Chicago and that Mann would be buried beside his son there, who died four years ago.

MEMBER OF HOUSE FOR TWENTY-SIX YEARS.

Mann served for twenty-six years as a member of the House. The outstanding features of his long career were absolute courage and independence and knowledge of legislation, pending and past. There was nothing too little to escape his eye; there was no man or measure he feared to attack.

Yet by his own direction, the record of his distinguished service was summed up in less than a line and a half of the Congressional Record: "Republican of Chicago; was born in 1846; was elected to the 55th, 56th and each succeeding Congress."

He was re-elected this month, and indeed, it has been said that the people of his district were determined to keep him in the House as long as he lived.

If Mann ever felt the sting of defeat when his party failed to select him speaker, after he had served as minority leader, during the election year of Democratic House, he never showed it. His friends did not know it. When William of Massachusetts, was named, Mann was offered the place as leader of the party, but declined. Thereafter he held sway as the free lance of the House, and as chairman of the committee on committees, which assisted members to committee work. His power was almost the greater than that of the speaker himself.

Only three members of the sixty-seventh Congress had served longer than Mann. He came before the Spanish war and stayed.

From the standpoint of knowledge of House rules and his ability to utilize them to the best advantage in a parliamentary language or debate, Mann was a member who served long with him, was undoubtedly the ablest member of the House in a generation. He had held front rank for years as a parliamentarian; he was always alert, forceful and effective in his delivery of legislation.

His knowledge of legislation, however, was not his greatest contribution to his colleagues. Any kind of a bill might land up at any time, but Mann seemed to know more about it than the man who wrote it or the chairman of the committee which reported it.

FLOWER GARDEN HIS ONLY OTHER THOUGHT.
Born on a farm, Mann always believed in the farmer. He was not a politician, but his influence was more than that of any other man in the House. He was identified with any particular group. He was nominated from the University of Illinois in 1878; he earned his degree as a lawyer, practiced for some years, and for a year or two was a member of the Chicago board of education.

CLUB WOMEN FAVOR NEW CLUBHOUSE

"What do you think of the idea of having one splendid big club building for the women's clubs in Oakland? I feel that there is to be a big drive for this cause and it looks to me like it is a good idea. I attended a club meeting where it was discussed, and I am in favor of the idea by all means. The plan is to have an auditorium that seats 1000 people, clubrooms, adjoining kitchen and even bedrooms, for delegates to conventions, etc. That does sound very good, indeed. I haven't been to any club meetings for so long I probably wouldn't have known about it at all had I not seen it in the paper. You should go out more. Mrs. Lewman asked me just the other day what had happened to you. Now, I couldn't give a very satisfactory answer."

"Well, to tell the truth, I kept putting off going to the things next week I will be able to get my new afternoon dress, surely. When the time comes there have been so many other things coming up that I postpone my dress again."

"Oh, you mustn't do that. I know how it is though. I used to be the same way. Now I buy my clothes at Cherry's, 435 13th street. When I need them then I make monthly payments. They do have very satisfactory clothes and they are so reasonable priced."

Cherry's store for men is at 625 14th street.—Advertisement

Civil War General Dies in New York

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—Brigadier General James Nicholas Wheeler, U. S. A. retired, died at a New York hotel yesterday in his eighty-fifth year. He was a veteran of the Civil War, of the Indian wars of 1877, and had been a military attaché at the courts of The Netherlands, Belgium and Berlin.

Author of Wood's Biography Passes

FLUSHING, N. Y., Dec. 1.—John G. Holme, editor and publisher, is dead at his home here. He was 43 years old, a native of Iceland and a graduate of the University of Minnesota. He had been engaged in newspaper work in Minneapolis, Chicago and New York. In 1907 he wrote the biography of the present governor-general of the Philippines which enjoyed wide circulation. One of the publishers at the funeral will be Vilhjalmur Stefansson, the explorer.

Hoaglin is alleged to have sold stock in a chain store system bearing his name. The jury in the case recommended leniency.

Senate Filibuster Remains Unbroken

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—Compromise moves were under way today to end the filibuster of Senate Democrats, which has completely stopped all business in the upper house of Congress since last Tuesday.

Some administration leaders fear continuation of the uprising—which old-timers pronounce the most skillful and successful waged in years—will explode political dynamite to shatter some of their hopes for the coming regular session of Congress, which opens Monday.

The potentialities which it is feared are screened behind the anti-lynching bill include:

1. Organization of a like movement against the ship subsidy coming up next week, inasmuch as the anti-subsidy group is composed almost entirely of present filibusters.
2. Delay in the appropriation bills for the government's next fiscal year.
3. Forcing an extra session of the new Congress, in which Progressives hold the sway of power and would lend their impetus to such movements as the Democrats are now beginning.

GERMAN-RUSSIAN PLOT DARED IN BRITISH PAPER

Details Supported By Investigation, Mail Says: Blow Aimed At France.

LONDON, Dec. 1.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Germans are secretly planning a war of revenge, chiefly against France, for which purpose they have concluded a secret military agreement with Russia, is the main point of a memorandum by a person in close touch with the best informed German circles in Berlin and Munich, communicated to the Daily Mail which displays it under big headlines.

The paper claims to have made exhaustive inquiries in Germany, London and Paris into the memo-

Committee Will Distribute Money Disaster Funds

JACKSON, Dec. 1.—Plans are being formulated for the distribution of the Argonaut Relief Fund, subscribed for the benefit of dependents of the forty-seven men who lost their lives in the Argonaut mine disaster last August. Stanley Arnot, Ben Sanzani and Ralph McGee, with William S. Tam, representing the Chamber of Commerce, Mayor C. W. Schacht, representing the city, and Mrs. Mary G. Warrington of the Red Cross, have organized themselves a committee to distribute the money, which has been in three funds. The committee will be assisted by the State Compensation Fund and American Consuls in determining the relationship and degrees of dependency of persons abroad to the dead miners. Between $45,000 and $50,000 is in hand.

random's accuracy with the result. The Mail says that it has been very largely supported.

Except for precise details the Mail's story does not differ materially from similar statements pointed from time to time in anti-German papers.

The memorandum particularizes with respect to alleged arrangements to enable Germany to utilize Russia's resources, including complete internal re-organization, which will make Russia capable of supporting both herself and Germany so that Germany may ignore any sea blockade.

It says that German armament firms will establish armories in Russia whose armies will be equipped thereby, and submarines and mine layers will be built in Russian dockyards under German guidance and manned by Russian crews under German officers.

Poland is to be crushed and annexed by Russia, so as to give Russia and Germany a common frontier.

The Mail claims that its inquiries regarding the memorandum have elicited the fact that 500 German officers are now in Moscow carrying out the conditions of the secret agreement; that many engineers from Krupp have begun their organization of Russian munitions works, while German financiers are also reconnoitering the Russian railroads to the Polish front.

Proof, says the Mail, has been obtained by the allies that the Germans are delivering large numbers of airplanes to the Russian government, one firm despatching commercial airplanes to Smolensk, where they are converted into military machines.

BANDIT CHASE WON BY OAKLAND SPECIALTY MAN

F. P. Terry, 323 Twelfth St., Captures Fleeing Car At Mt. Eden Garage.

The TRIBUNE'S "bandit chase" held yesterday a record of capturing the efficiency of radio in police work. It was won by F. P. Terry of the Radio Specialty Shop, 323 Twelfth street, after the "bandit" had been at large for two hours and thirty minutes.

Yesterday's test was conducted by radio men to be one of the most difficult and convincing arguments in favor of radio in police work that has ever been put forth. With only the license plate number and the make of the car known to those searching for the "bandit" and with only a report of the chase whereabouts to guide him, Terry, here, leader of the car's recovery, throughout the entire run, and when the first report was broadcast from H.M. The TRIBUNE station, stating that the "bandit" had stopped at the Mt. Eden garage to mend a tire, Terry was only three miles away. Eight minutes later he drew up in front of the garage and pronounced the "bandit" CHASED AS MILES.

The "bandit" car, a Buick No. 43354, was driven by Frank Ford of the Howard Automobile Company of Oakland, and covered a total distance of 95 miles during the chase of two hours and thirty minutes. About 40 minutes of this time was consumed in parking in out-of-the-way places to elude the car's pursuers.

The radio-equipped car which caught the "bandit" was a Durant piloted by J. P. Phillips. Terry operated the receiving set and directed the chase. The radio receiving set used was a two-tube radio frequency set, built by the Radio Specialty Shop, equipped with a Western Electric loud speaker. Its efficiency was characterized by its ability to pick up K.M. on the short wave, and to receive the "bandit" on the long wave.

Every message from the TRIBUNE station was caught on the loud speaker. No car phones were used. The set was built and operated by Clifford Gargus.

OTHERS IN RUNNING.

Several other cars in the chase also report the reception of K.M. on automobile radios and phones. Some of the others in the chase who were close to the "bandit" several times were Warren Smith and Leon Prince of 2221 13th; Thirteenth street; Fred Holtman, 829 Lincoln avenue, Alameda; Charles Hammond, of Richmond; L. R. Whitman, of Richmond; and T. M. Dobson, member of the O. T. I. C.

The only telephone calls received giving information as to the "bandit's" whereabouts were from a gasoline station at Birch and East Twelfth street, 2100 East Twelfth street, general store at San Ramon, Sunol telephone operator, Rose's garage, Niles, and from the Mt. Eden garage, where the "bandit" was captured.

Dragon Flag Is Flown at China Emperor Weds

By THOMAS MELOY,
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

PEKING, Dec. 1.—As a court-ney from Republican China, the Dragon flag, flew over the Forbidden City today for the first time since the abortive monarchical reign of 1911.

This was the boy emperor's wedding day.

Ceremonies of age-old origin began yesterday.

The first of interesting ceremonies was the formal issuing by the emperor of an imperial edict creating Princess Kuanghwa empress. The emperor signed the decree written on gold parchment. The document was carried by the highest Manchou princess to the family residence of Princess Kuanghwa.

There the Princess, clad in a magnificent imperial yellow satin phoenix robe, awaited the coming of the edict that made her the wife of her ruler and empress without a country.

The bride's proxy entered the palace yesterday. Today the bride arrived. Behind the walls of the Forbidden Palace followed the Chinese wedding ceremonies. Chang Tzu-shan, Wu Yei Pa and all high officials of China, sent valuable presents to the palace in honor of the occasion. The young Princess and empress-to-be has been tutored in English. Incidentally, she learned to play tennis, make fudge and ride a bicycle.

Menlo Park Boozs Bandit Reprieved

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 1.—Continuation of a series of arrests made yesterday by Governor Stephens to Arnold V. Thompson, serving from one to five years in San Quentin as leader of the liquor bandits that robbed the home of Julian Hott at Menlo Park last March. Thompson has a record of successful service during the World War. He is partially blind as a result of his service in the army.

BLAZING COMB BURNS BARE. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 1.—Play-er and a villainous coach, John Neil, 16 months old, whose parents live at 246 Ivy avenue, thrust it in the flame of a gas jet and was badly burned about the face and scalp.

POLICE RECOVER STOLEN BIRDS

ALAMEDA, Dec. 1.—C. C. Smith, 2506 Nobel avenue, today received from the officers of the law ten choice canaries which had been stolen from his aviary during the last week.

The birds were recovered by the police after a search of the city during the last two weeks.

The boy was apprehended when he called at the home of F. P. Oshorne, 1648 Broadway, last night and attempted to enter the pigeon loft. All residents of the city who have lost feathered pets are being notified by the police to call at the station and identify their property.

Police Investigate Injury to Woman

A police investigation is being made today into the circumstances surrounding the injury of Mrs. C. C. Ray who was treated in her home last night for a cut in the back, said to have been received when she fell, striking a piece of broken glass. The police are seeking to determine if the wound was due to a fall or if Mrs. Ray was pushed in the back.

American Women Praised by Artist

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—American women are the most interesting and beautiful to a painter, said Lulo Blass, an eminent young Italian painter, who arrived on the Colombia from Naples. Signor Blass is one of the best known of Italian portrait painters. He will do portraits of prominent American women in their homes.

CHRISTIANITY IN BURMA MAKING GREAT STRIDES

RANGOON, Dec. 1.—That steady progress in Burma was indicated at a conference of about 150 American missionaries recently held in this city. From the last government census, it is apparent that the Christian religion has reached one in fifty of the whole population of the country.

It is in educational work that the most definite progress was made during the year. Judson College has more than regained the enrollment which was lost through the student strike of 1920. This institution is now co-educational and 69 per cent of its present student body is made up of Christians. The completion of the science department in equipment and staff has made possible the offering of a bachelor's degree in science. The Anglo-Burmese high schools of the mission are rapidly becoming standardized.

A museum on agricultural school is being established at Pymanna for the purpose of training poor boys to earn their living in farm work.

Now a Straight Course Ahead for Christmas— Capwells

The First of Four Glad, Glorious, Getting-Ready Saturdays

The Human Touch

In the drama of business something more than a perfect machine is necessary to full success. Inevitably, shoppers find their way to the store that not only has facilities for serving them well, but also puts into its service friendly interest and the spirit of genuine helpfulness.

Quality Is Built Into Our Men's Cowhide Bags

Bags for men must be built for hard usage, and the quality of such merchandise is not easily appreciated by the casual shopper. Take a cowhide bag as an example.

The cheapest bags are made of either a thin split or a "buffing" cowhide (the latter being an extremely thin surface cowhide) mounted on cardboard.

Such bags we never handle, recommending rather a good, undersurface "split" in preference. The best bag of all is a 6-ounce surface cowhide, mounted on heavy canvas in order that the leather be more flexible and still retain its shape.

To carry one of our first quality bags, and anyone would be proud to make a Christmas gift of such a bag. Strong and comfortable handles, sturdy frames, the best hardware, heavy stitching and reinforced at every point, are characteristic of these bags.

the largest stocks in the west, with nearly sixty different styles, in men's bags alone. These men's bags include smooth and beaded cowhide, natural shrunk walrus and alligator.

You will find that our prices are the lowest possible commensurate with the quality built into the bags and you will discover that they represent extraordinary values.

You are cordially invited to come in and we will gladly give you any information you want on bag construction, whether you are planning an immediate purchase or not.

PHILIPPINE GOLD, USING DREDGER

Pay Dirt Surber After Three Years of Work At Liang.

(By International News Service)
MANILA, P. I., Dec. 1.—The Philippine government has announced that it has decided to begin mining for gold in the Liang region, after three years of work. The government in the outcroppings of the main vein. The main vein has not yet been reached, but promises big results. The chief of the division of mines of the bureau of science,

Dr. Warren D. Smith, says there are many bonanza mining projects in the Philippines, but only large capital can overcome the tropical conditions and operate them successfully. American prospectors have found "pay dirt" and taken claims of copper and gold in many parts of the island, and are waiting for the day when in order to go in with them to develop their gold age.

Exposition in 1927 May Be Up To Oakland Men

The possibility of Oakland's holding an international exposition in 1927, if Portland, Ore., fails to finance a plan to hold one in that city, was being investigated today by members of the executive committee of the Onward Oakland Club, a subdivision of the Chamber of Commerce.

According to members of the club, only half of the $8,000,000 needed for the exposition has been raised by Portland and there is a possibility that the project will be abandoned by the northern city. In that event, Oakland business men and organizations may be asked to consider the possibility of financing a similar exposition here.

No definite steps have yet been taken by the club, which is gaining data upon which to base its decision as to whether or not to recommend the project for Oakland.

PUZZLING NOTES FOUND ON BODY OF L. A. SUICIDE

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 1.—The body of a man said by the police to be that of Charles A. Lew, 45 years old, of Sawtelle, near here, was taken from the water yesterday. Two notes found under a barrel on the pier indicated suicide.

The police are puzzled by the communications, which contained such phrases as:
"Time will tell. I do not know who committed the crime. I have nothing to confess to the authorities, so it is useless for me to go there. I am innocent.
I am a victim of circumstances."

Douglas Fairbanks and his wife, Mary Pickford, were here
when the body was recovered.
At first it was thought the man might be revived and the notion picture actors said they would give him work at their studio in Los Angeles, if he was resuscitated. When it was determined he was dead they left money to purchase flowers for the funeral.

WHISTLE IN CHURCH URGES REVIVALIST

(By International News Service)
BELFAST, Dec. 3.—Whistling in church instead of singing, and whistling competitions between different religious sections are the means which the Rev. W.
Nicholson employs to attract crowds to his revivalist meetings.

He insists on the men in his congregation whistling the well-known hymn tunes, and leads them through them again and again until he is satisfied they are putting their heart into it.

The result of several hundred men whistling at once is ear-piercing, but the Rev. Nicholson claims that he can number his converts in the thousands.

MAHLER WORK BY SYMPHONY LIKED

By ROY HARRISON FANTORTI.

Gustav Mahler's experience has followed that of many another producer of art in that only posthumously did he receive the recognition he deserved. Perhaps Mahler would have fared even worse and remained indefinitely unimportant but that he had been Boswellled by as able an expositor as Mengelberg.
At any rate, we are coming at last to have a taste of his music, and we find it palatable.

At the Auditorium last evening his Fourth Symphony was half of the program which Alfred Hertz and the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra gave as the third in the symphony series. The audience was much decimated by the holiday date, but its enthusiasm was not impaired. It enjoyed not only the Mahler work but Rimsky-Korsakov's "Scheherazade" boisterously, after which followed, and gave definite indication of its liking.

This Mahler work, like his others, departs far from the classical forms. It contains the usual four movements, but the vocal part as well as even the character of the movements is not formal. In spirit in instrumentation, in meaning, the symphony is continually evolving. There is an insouciance about its form and content that comports well with the folklore derivation of many of its themes. Mahler's flair for sudden and startling contrasts is obvious
on several occasions, not is there evidence of imaginative
wealth. But his idealism, unsophis-ticated style and rich orchestration
make it thoroughly interesting.

The solo part, occurring in the fourth movement, is a gem, and Mabel Nergelman, whom Oakland always remembers and in whom it always delights, sang it with purest ray serene. The native which the song demands came spontaneously and unfettered from her lips. In her sweet, well-modulated voice she sang about its form and content that comports well with the folklore derivation of many of its themes. Mahler's flair for sudden
and startling contrasts is obvious
on several occasions, not is there
evidence of imaginative
wealth. But his idealism, unsophis-ticated style and rich orchestration
make it thoroughly interesting.

BLUE BIRD BLUE BIRD BLUE BIRD

Christmas wishing for many youngsters will not get any further than wishing unless big-hearted Eastbay answers the heart call. And the youngsters who will get a call from Jovial old St. Nick realize because many of them are joining the Goodfellow ranks. Pupils of the Lafayette school have raised $40 to give the children in their neighborhood a share of Christmas. Two other youths write to the Blue Bird, one as follows: "I will go around as far as I can go. I hope I can do my best to please you." The other writes: "I would like to go around the place I live. I will go as far as I can. I hope I can do the best I can for you."

It is that spirit of sacrifice which was taught by the Master, the spirit of the Christmas season that these youngsters must bring home to every Goodfellow.

Goodfellows, it only needs a little human touch with some material help to start some downcast family on the road of independence and self reliance.

Give an ear to some of the pleas that the Blue Bird receives. Here is one of them:

"Dear Bluebird: I wonder if you could give Santa Claus a message for a little girl who is going without much cheer this year and who has a sister and two brothers who will be the same?

"I am a girl 13 years old; my sister is 11 and my brother is 2 years and 3 days; my oldest brother is 7 years old.

"My daddy has been trying to do all he can to pay all bills so we could have something for Christmas, but he can't do anything this year and I know he feels bad about it, so won't you tell Santa Claus to help us so he will be more cheerful and happy."

"We want a few clothes and a few toys which we will be very grateful for. Well, pray every night for you for doing this for us."

"Wishing you every happiness in the future and the blessing of the God."

The pleas to the Blue Bird are not all from the children. Many letters are from lonely women and widows and occasionally from a father who is trying to be both parents to a family of children. Here is a letter from a widow whose only son and sole support has lost his job. "If it was not for him I would have to go to the

$100,000 SAVED

Tomorrow one million people will patronize twelve hundred PIGGLY WIGGLY Stores that are in operation in the United States.

If these customers would pay to have their purchases delivered it would cost one hundred thousand dollars.

The United States Department of Commerce has figured that it costs an average of ten cents to make each delivery. There is no such thing as free delivery. Every customer pays his proportion for free delivery.

THE SERVICE OF SELF-SERVICE

At PIGGLY WIGGLY Stores you select the merchandise you desire with your own hands, without persuasion or suggestions. The price as indicated by the swinging price tag furnishes the argument.

Only standard advertised brands of well-known merchandise are offered. You save time by not waiting for a clerk to wait on you. You save patience by not having to out-talk a clerk to obtain the articles you came for. You save money by waiting on yourself, which eliminates many overhead costs, as no store on earth can any more afford to furnish service and not charge for that service than a bank can lend money and not charge interest.

LIBERTY CALL

ATHENS, Ohio, Dec. 1.—Many years ago Lord Dunmore's army arrived at the mouth of the Hocking river, where Hockingport is situated, near here. There, dissatisfied with King George of England, the officers of the army drew up the first American declaration of independence from Great Britain. For moving on to attack the Indians on the Scioto plains, the daughters of the American Revolution are arranging for the erection of a memorial at the spot where the first declaration of independence was drawn up.

French Agent in Pacific Advocated

PARIS, Dec. 1.—(By the Associated Press)—A French high commissioner in the Pacific is indiscreetly, Lean Archimbaud, reporter of the budget for the colonies, declares in a report which he has just communicated to the chamber of deputies. The Pacific, particularly since the Washington conference, has become the economic center of the world, he says, and France must play an important part by the side of Great Britain, United States and Japan.

This Is Your Opportunity

Do you own your own home? Are you paying $20 to $30 per month rent? Do you have to move when your landlord says "Gee?" You can be independent and save money at the same time if you will figure out our proposition. Here it is: For $25 down we will give you immediate possession of a quarter acre in Berkeley Country Club Terrace, then we will give you free building material to construct a small, neat, substantial bungalow on a concrete foundation. The total price ranges from $275 and up, sold on terms less than rent, no interest or taxes until July 1, 1923. Come to the big sale next Sunday, rain or shine, or phone Lakeside 1600 for appointment.—Advertisement.

PAIDRE OF RAINS
CHARTS STORMY
PERIODS AHEAD

Father Ricard Foretells Days of Disturbance in Weather
During December.

SANTA CLARA UNIVERSITY, Dec. 1.—Father Jerome S. Ricard, S. J., today gave out the following weather forecast from his observatory at Santa Clara University. The "Padre of the Rains" predicts intermittent storms for December, interspersed with fair weather.

December 1, 2, 3, already touched upon in my November forecast, will bring on a more serious disturbance than was at first anticipated. It will affect the whole coast, yield some rain in parts, be preceded and followed by smart southeast and northwest winds respectively. A quick barometric rise will set in on the 3d and be continued on the 4th and 5th, bidding the storm away to the eastward.

December 4, 5, 6, generally fair, a series of minor depressions will start across the northern coast, each followed seeking to intensify its predecessor and the whole chain finally breaking off into separate disturbances. The barometer will begin to rise to no inconsiderable height on the 7th and the 11th, cutting fine slices of nice weather from the stormy period December 6-12. Smart winds and scattered rains over the general Northwest and California may be looked for December 13, 14 and 15, fair weather.

December 16, an old seat of solar upheaval will once more face the earth and cause some trouble over Western Canada and, in the absence of high pressures at the southward, move into California and dispense some rain along its path.

December 17, under influence of previous storm.

December 18, generally fair, but mostly fair in southern and central California, on account of rising pressure.

December 22, a storm of ugly looks landing over the Northwest, calling for brisk south winds over land and sea and determining generous rainfalls there and in northern sections of California. Said storm will be valiantly resisted by rising barometers in these parts, thus creating a fair outlook for Christmas Day.

December 25, a mild depression, causing some cloudiness from Washington to the northward and eastward.

December 26, 17, high pressure regime and serene skies over Oregon to the southward.

December 27, 28, 29, successive storms swelling into a big one will prevail over the general coast, go out by the 31st, leaving cold nights and fair days behind until January 4, 1923.

ADDED TEACHER
ADVOCATED FOR NEWARK SCHOOL

Superintendent Martin Urges
Addition to Faculty At An Early Date.

NEWARK, Dec. 1.—Superintendent David E. Martin made an official visit to the Newark school Wednesday. He expressed his satisfaction as to the condition of the school and strongly urged that an extra teacher be installed at the earliest time possible.

While in Newark he stated that the next legislature would undoubtedly change the teacher apportionment law so that a district must employ as many teachers as the state apportionment is made for or less the money apportioned for an extra teacher. Under the present apportionment law, a school is entitled to an extra teacher on an average of one unit over any multiple of 35. The old law required ten units over any multiple of 35. As matters stand today, money is being apportioned for many teachers who are not employed.

Auto Runs Over
9-Year-Old Boy

RICHMOND, Dec. 1.—Edward Hill, 9-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hill, 925 Fifth street, was run over by an automobile driven by Arad Wickstrom, 620 Twenty-ninth street, in front of the T. and N. theater last night. He was removed to the Cottage hospital where X-ray photographs will be taken today. One wheel of the Wickstrom car passed over the boy's chest.

Foreman & Clark service to clothes-buyers in the fall of 1922 is going to reach a mark that has never been touched... even in all our years of doing things no other clothing institution could afford to do.

The only things that go up and down
in this business—
are the stairway
and the customers

We are bringing advance fall styles at least six weeks ahead of anybody else?.....Yes! We are selling these new styles without a penny's mark-up; without a single boosted price, at our standard year-round prices of $25, $30 or $35? Yes!—We are swinging toward the fall season with 500,000

Trade Upstairs
and Save $10

wearers; with a total of new customers in 1922 nearing the 200,000 mark?.....Yes! We are guaranteeing a saving of at least $10 on any... Well, what else? The most important stroke of all! Foreman & Clark are bringing to the public of America this fall the greatest suit of clothes which the clothing industry has produced, hand in hand with the ONLY overcoat built LIKE THIS SUIT, tailored like this suit, constructed INSIDE with the same front, the same materials, the same remarkable design which swept men off their feet last spring and summer! That's the big smash! And at what moment does it come? At the one moment in clothing history when other manufacturers are sacrificing overcoat construction ALTOGETHER! Watch, observe, and judge for yourself! There is not another great overcoat producer in the country, building overcoats to sell within $10, $20, even $30 of our prices, who is even putting his own erstwhile INSIDE tailoring into overcoats this fall!... let alone anything approaching F. & C. construction. Almost the same is true of suits. "ANYTHING TO MEET A PRICE".... seems to be the slogan.

We are sorry that Foreman & Clark success at $25, $30 and $35 has led other manufacturers to measures like these. But we are proud to have taught the public what it should get for each dollar, whether it means that every other maker in America shall be judged by these standards or NOT!

BOTH AMERICAS BEING SEARCHED FOR COLLECTION

Heye Foundation Seeks Answer to Question: "Whence Came the Indian?"

(By International News Service.)
NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—Riches of the Aztecs such as were in the loot of Cortez; ornaments of fine gold such as Pizarro, the Spanish conqueror, took from the Peruvians; priceless objects of art of the civilization of the ancient Mayas, are among the nearly two million specimens of the Museum of the American Indian, Heye Foundation, which has just been officially opened.

One of the main purposes of the newly opened museum is to help in the final answer to the question: "Whence came the American Indian?" Are they the Ten Lost Tribes, blood brothers to the Japanese, or Chinese, or did they flee from a sinking continent? Scholars and scientists by the comparison of hundreds of thousands of specimens, may be able to work out that puzzling problem. At the same time designers of costumes, makers of fabrics, manufacturers of pottery may find inspiration in these remarkable collections for practical purposes. The general public will gain education and recreation and food for romance.

Although this museum, situated at Broadway and One Hundred and Fifty-fifth street, is a massive building, it can show at one time only about one-fifth of its treasures. The contents of many of the cases, therefore, will be changed from time to time. Under some of the flat tops are nests of drawers, which visitors can pull out with their own hands and inspect specimens not on view.

SOUTHERN RACES HIGHEST
As explained by the director and founder of the museum, George G. Heye, the highest development, in the class of that of the early Grande, was south of the Rio Grande, while in the northern countries the natives lived in the primitive state. Such variations can be especially well studied in this institution, the only one in the world dedicated to the American Indian, although there are notable collections of Indian relics in other large museums.

Among its treasures is a relic of the Mayas, the oldest race in the Americas, a sacred vessel used in the worship of the sun. Mexico is represented by numerous beautiful objects of Aztec craftsmanship. Among them is the finest example of Aztec turquoise mosaic in the world, so far as is known. It is a shield only one foot in diameter and ornamented with 24,000 bits of turquoise, arranged in a design which illustrates the worship of the planet Venus. The colors vary from light green to a dark blue green and are exquisitely blended.

Massive seats of stone, shaped like classic throne chairs, reveal the art of natives of Ecuador, who passed from this life many centuries ago. Among the picturesque objects in the Ecuadorian collection are human figures, reduced to about one-fifth of their natural size and preserved so that there has evidently not been the slightest change in their features. Here, also, is an entire human body only twenty-seven inches long, although it was once that of a full-grown man. The skeleton and skull were removed, after which the flesh was preserved by a process of mummification. The shrinking was done by the heads of enemies slain in battle.

A canoe paddle, such as is described in the record of the voyage of Columbus, and dishes of wood, hundreds of years old, are among the West Indies. Central America has contributed ancient jewelry and ornaments of solid gold of wonderful workmanship. Legends and the poetry of the Northern Indians are revealed in the carvings of the early inhabitants.

Festivals of the aborigines are recalled by gaudy garments, the bright-hued head-dresses and weird musical instruments. Enormous dishes, as large as modern bathtubs, in which the Indians of Brazil, in which the Indians of Brazil, in which the Indians of Brazil, which were welcomed old friends and neighbors. One can only suggest, however, the wealth of material for research and for recreation found in the new institution.

which were welcomed old friends and neighbors. One can only suggest, however, the wealth of material for research and for recreation found in the new institution.

COAST SHIPPERS ARE OPPOSED TO RAIL UNMERGER

Seth Mann Declares Business Interest Apprehensive Over P. C. P. Divorce.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—(By the Associated Press.)—Business interests of the coast and the Pacific Coast shippers generally are apprehensive of increased transportation expense and delayed transportation service if the Supreme court decision following the Central Pacific merger from the Southern Pacific is carried into effect. Seth Mann, president of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce Traffic Committee, testified today before the Interstate Commerce Commission. In connection with other witnesses representing a California shippers' committee, Mann expressed the belief that the commission should grant the Southern Pacific Company's application to be allowed to retain control of the Central Pacific until a general plan of consolidation of railroads has been worked out.

CAUSES CONTROVERSY.
Animated interchanges by the witnesses and H. A. Scammet, counsel for the Union Pacific, resulted during the cross-examination when the attorney pointed out that nine years ago the San Francisco chamber had approved a plan for separation of the two roads.

Mann insisted that action was taken under "duress" because it desired a separation plan involuntarily arrived at by the railroads concerned rather than one resulting from legislation under the anti-trust laws, which the government later instituted and which resulted in the Supreme court decree ordering separation.

"Since that time we have seen enacted the Transportation act of 1920, which specifically declares that the Sherman law shall not apply to the railroad situation," Mann declared.

SAYS UNION APPROVED.
"You are giving a very free rendering of the legal effect of that 1920 act," Scammet observed. "The San Francisco Chamber of Commerce start this work of rallying to the Southern Pacific's standard the business interests of California."
"I don't know that they did rally in such a way," Mann replied. "We have, however, succeeded most delightfully in determining that the public sentiment of California approves continuation of the union between the Southern Pacific and the Central Pacific."

Among the other witnesses of the shippers' committee supporting the Southern Pacific's application today were George J. Bradley, speaking for Sacramento business associations and for citrus fruit marketing organizations, and Dallas H. Gray, of Fresno, representing nut growers and co-operative canneries.

Holiday Turkey Pinched as Souze; Family Eats Pork

BERKELEY, Dec. 1.—The Volstead act and Thanksgiving were mixed in a queer combination yesterday for the Angelino Phillips family of El Cerrito. As a result the Phillips ate roast pork for their holiday dinner. The big fat turkey which was to have formed the piece de resistance of their holiday menu occupied a "cell" at the Berkeley city pound for inability not only to fly but to walk.

The turkey, according to the story later unfolded at Berkeley police station, escaped from a pen in the yard of the Phillips home after her had been fed on crumpled turkey legs for six weeks. The trail followed by the fed gobbler led to a pile of mash near a Contra Costa county moonshine still. The bird partook abundantly of the free meal afforded. Patrolman H. P. Lee of the Berkeley department saw him not long afterward. In fact he saw him staggering across the road and narrowly avoided hitting him with his car.

The bird was "pinched," taken into police station, formally "booked" on the police bulletin and later turned over to Poundmaster Peter Rogers. It was not until late last night that Phillips discovered the whereabouts of his holiday dinner and his wandering gobbler.

Liberty Not Masked, Declares Gerard

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—(By The Associated Press.)—Jewish organizations need take no action against the Ku Klux Klan, but may leave the task of combating the body to Protestants, James W. Gerard, former ambassador to Germany and member of the congregation of B'nai B'rith, in a Thanksgiving Day address.

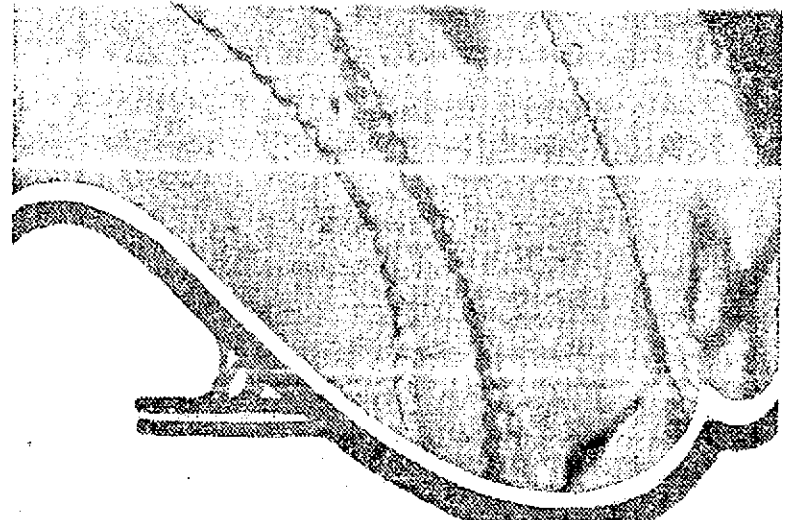

"I have been informed that a Jewish organization, B'nai Abraham, has said that it will crush the Klan," Gerard said. "I will say to you that no Jewish organization need take any action. Leave it to us Protestants."

The principal reason for Thanksgiving, he said, was that there still is liberty in America. "But," he added, "organizations like the Klan are its enemies. Religion, morality and Americanism do not need masks."

STAND COLLAPSES.

MELROSE, Mass., Dec. 1.—Several hundred girls in the cheering section of Melrose High school were thrown to the ground in a tangled heap when a stand collapsed yesterday during a football match between the Melrose and Arlington teams. Several girls suffered broken ankles and scores were cut and bruised.

Peter B. Kyne Film Story To Be Featured at American Theater

HELENE CHADWICK, who is seen in "BROTHERS UNDER THE SKIN," a refreshing comedy of married life, which opens at the American Theater tomorrow.

Double Program Includes "Youth To Youth" With Billie Dove and Cullen Landis.

The celebrated strategy of Marshal Foch was mere child's play compared to that employed by the two bespectacled husbands who are heroes of Peter B. Kyne's famous story, "Brothers Under The Skin." Billie Dove, a brand new screen star, and Cullen Landis are seen in success and which opens at the American Theatre tomorrow. "Brothers Under The Skin" has an exceptional cast, with Helene Chadwick and Claire Windsor assuming the roles of the wives. Norman Kerry and Pat O'Malley are the husbands. Mae Busch is the meddlesome. Billie Dove, a brand new screen star, and Cullen Landis are seen in success and which opens at the American Theatre tomorrow. ## A Short Story by A.S.M. Hutchinson

This man Hutchinson has a faculty for writing stories that get talked about. If Winter Comes, This Freedom—and now The Rough Little Girl and the Smooth Little Girl. Not to read it will be to miss the literary treat of the month—the delightfully whimsical tale of a hate that grew into a whimsical friendship. It's complete in one issue—the first of several short stories he is writing for The Journal.

Zane Grey's Greatest

The Vanishing American—the story of the love of an Indian and his desperate fight against terrible odds—is the greatest, the most vital, the most vigorous of Mr. Grey's splendid Western novels. Don't fail to read it! . . . Read also in the big Christmas Journal The Golden Adventure, a story of Paul and Philemon, by Katharine Holland Brown; The Prince Rides Home, by Frances Noyes Hart; and Dusty Star, by Olaf Baker.

A Play For Christmas

The Loveliest Thing, by Roland Pertwee, is both story and one-act play—delightful to read and jolly to act in amateur performance. Write The Journal for permission to put it on without charge. It has the real Christmas spirit. . . . So has The Man Who Didn't Know Christmas from the Fourth of July, by Eleanor Hallowell Abbott—the story of a wonderful house party, with mistletoe and jingling bells and happy holiday romance.

Has The Church Failed?

Yes, says A. Maude Royden, greatest woman preacher in the world. So long as the churches fret themselves with piffing details and ignore the big problems of Christianity they will continue to lose the men and the women, the boys and the girls. What can the churches do? They can tackle the big issues; they can—but read her article in The Journal. It is a tocsin cry to the churches and to Christians everywhere.

Grace Richmond

Is writing for The Journal a series of articles that picture with keen humor and rare understanding the problems of every home. Read The Visits of Mrs. Trelawney. Other articles of particular interest include The Greatest Painting in the World, by William Lyon Phelps; Grandma's Gone Fishing, by Sarah D. Lowrie; The Winter Baby, by Dr. S. Josephine Baker; and Harnessing Industry with the Vote, by Elizabeth Frazer.

The Story of Christ in One Great Painting

Look at the cover on the Christmas Journal! It is one of the most wonderful religious paintings ever made. In thirteen pictures Henry J. Soulen has depicted the whole life of Christ—Madonna and Child, Adoration of the Shepherds, Adoration of the Magi, Flight Into Egypt, Child Jesus in the Temple, Suffer Little Children to Come Unto Me, Jesus Writing on the Ground, Procession Through Jerusalem, Mary Magdalene's Box of Precious Ointment, Sermon on the Mount, Last Supper, Christ Before Pilate, Golgotha. There are three other great paintings in this issue—each one worthy of framing—Raphael's Sistine Madonna; The Sermon on the Mount, by Copping; and the Friend of the Lowly, by Lhermitte.

For Women's Clubs

Mrs. Thomas G. Winter herself, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, has written The Citizenship Program in The Journal's notable series of programs for your woman's club. In December.

The Dress You Need Now

Even in midwinter some new dresses are surely needed. Follow The Journal's styles and what you buy or make will be good until it is worn out.

The House of Helen by Corra Harris

A small town in Georgia—a man and a maid—a romance, a marriage, a heartbreak—a regeneration that will thrill you with its simple intensity. That is Mrs. Harris' new novel, which begins serial publication this month, and will appear in four generous installments. Never before has Mrs. Harris shown such soul-searching insight. Don't miss the opening chapters, in the December issue.

Enemies of Prohibition

Who are they? Who are these people who want to flood us again with rum? Those who are screaming for "personal liberty" are only the puppets of the old whisky ring that is eager to get back the profits of drunkenness. Charles A. Selden has found out all about the anti-prohibition crowd, and in three articles he will reveal their insidious propaganda. Read the first one in the December Journal.

About Mrs. Santa Claus

It's a story for children and grown-ups, too—this gay little Pudding Lane Christmas tale by Sarah Addington. How Mary wanted a red-headed doll; how Santa Claus met with an accident; and The Great Adventure of Mrs. Santa Claus. . . . Something to look forward to is a whole series of new Pudding Lane stories next year, with Gertrude Kay's colored cut-outs of favorite Mother Goose characters.

Booth Tarkington

Merry Christmas, you say—but what right have you to be happy? Tarkington's answer, in a thoughtful editorial, is one that perhaps you have never thought of before.

WORKING GIRLS FIND CHAMPIONS IN LEGISLATURE

Three Women From Hennepin Will Take Up Cudgels For Reform.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Dec. 1.—Efforts in behalf of working girls and child welfare is the one issue upon which the three women on the Hennepin County board of supervisors are united. They are the only women on the board, and for whom the work will work when the session begins next January.

One of the women representing the Hennepin County board of supervisors is Mrs. M. J. O'Brien, who has been a police officer for many years. She is a native of Ireland and has been in the United States for many years. She is a member of the Irish American League and has been active in the work of the league for many years.

The other two women on the board are Mrs. J. J. O'Brien and Mrs. J. J. O'Brien. They are also active in the work of the league and are known for their efforts in behalf of working girls and child welfare.

'MUSHERS' NOW TRAVEL TRAILS IN DISTRICT

SEWARD, Alaska, Dec. 1.—That "times do change" would be the mental comment of many early gold prospectors who faced hardship and death almost daily in their early days into the interior of Alaska were they to move the trip again today.

Over the trail which formerly carried "mushers" and "sour-doughs" in their quest for the new gold fields, now travel two bands of soldiers and their families. The soldiers are the members of the 1st Cavalry Division, and the families are the wives and children of the soldiers. They are traveling the trail from Seward to Fairbanks, Alaska.

The trail is a difficult one to travel, and the soldiers and their families must be prepared for many hardships. The trail is long and the weather is often very bad. The soldiers and their families must be prepared for many hardships.

DANZIG VISIONS
RESUMING GLORY IN SHIP ACTIVITY

Reopening Russian Markets Looked On As Wedge For International Trade.

DANZIG, Dec. 1.—Rapid strides in overcoming the shipping reverses suffered during the world war have revived in the heart of Danzig visions of a time when she may resume the position acquired in the fourteenth century, under the Teutonic Knights, as a hub of international trade. Her ears are alert now for any project bearing on the recent talk of reopening Russian markets.

Before the war this port laid claim to four important shipping lines, one combined fleets aggregated 33 vessels of 21,000 gross tons. These companies were, Danzig and Sigs, the Danzig Shipping company, the P. G. Reinhold interests, and the Hamburg-Danzig Line. Their vessels went as far as the Mediterranean on one side and to the White Sea on the other. Regular traffic was carried on with Finnish harbors, Hamburg, Rotterdam, Antwerp, London, Bristol and Liverpool.

The war not only robbed Danzig of many former trade connections, but deprived her as well of almost a fifth of her sea-going ships. The close of hostilities, however, was the signal for immediate reconstruction operations, and today the home fleet consists of 68 vessels whose aggregate gross tonnage is 93,500.

Since the war the old lines have extended their facilities here, and several new undertakings have been established. Among the latter are the Arhus lines, with four large steamers destined for the South American service; a Russo-English firm, and the Baltic-American Petroleum company, represented by large motor freight ships. Others under process of organization or recently founded include the North Baltic Sea Shipping company and the Standard Lines, the latter being interested in trade between Norway and Spain, as well as in Baltic-North Sea commerce.

Already, the first half of this year has shown an increase over the first semester of 1921 in arriving and departing tonnage. Business on the Baltic promises to show a further spur for the second half of this year, since it was not until the past summer that these waters became entirely cleared of the thousands of mines laid during the war.

Ireland Plans Nationalization Of Rail Lines

DUBLIN, Dec. 1.—The commission appointed by the Irish government to inquire into the working of Irish railways has just reported, with one dissenting vote, in favor of the nationalization of the railways by the state. It is recommended, however, that the management be not in the hands of a state minister, but by a national railway board representing various interests, including labor.

The present market value of the entire railway stock in Ireland is estimated at between twenty-five and thirty million pounds sterling, which, it is suggested, should be acquired by a tribunal that would issue bonds at reasonable interest and redeemable from a sinking fund in installments every ten years. The project of nationalization, however, has been broadly criticized; it is not popular.

The Irish railways are at present being run under difficulties. During the war fares were raised 100 per cent, although the increase in England was only 75 per cent. This has now been reduced to 50 per cent, while the Irish 100 per cent increase remains unaltered.

Women May Enter Technical School

TOKYO, Dec. 1.—For the first time women students are to be admitted to the school of technology of the Imperial University of Kyushu. The board of consultation held more than ten meetings to arrive at the decision. They are expected to open the doors of medical and agricultural colleges as well.

Already, the first half of this year has shown an increase over the first semester of 1921 in arriving and departing tonnage. Business on the Baltic promises to show a further spur for the second half of this year, since it was not until the past summer that these waters became entirely cleared of the thousands of mines laid during the war.

JOSEPH J. TYMAN TAKES BRIDE

Less than twenty-four hours after his daughter, Miss Josephine Tyman, had been married to James Tattersall of Philadelphia, at a brilliant wedding in St. Mary's Cathedral, San Francisco, Wednesday evening Joseph J. Big Crowd at Session of Annual Chicken Show

Over two thousand visitors attended the annual poultry show at the Municipal Auditorium yesterday. The show is being held under the auspices of the State Poultry Association, and includes in addition to the poultry, a large number of other fowl.

One of the interesting features of the show is the display of prizes. In addition to a gate prize, the Alameda County Poultry Breeders' Association is giving away an order for one hundred baby chicks each day. These baby chicks are from certified stock which has been the subject of examination of poultry experts and are from the heaviest laying strains of fowls in the famous Hayward egg belt.

F. C. Steiner of Hayward is president of the Alameda County Poultry Breeders' Association and reports that the attendance of commercial poultry owners from Hayward and Castro valley is very large. A notable exhibit is in the booth of Eckman and Sommer of Los Angeles, who have a poultry plant valued at $115,000. They have brought some of the finest leghorns in the world.

AWARDS OF YESTERDAY

The following awards were made by the judges yesterday:

BOARD DISCLAIMS

FOR TUBE DELAY

Action Waits Change in Law, Is Reply to Merchants' Exchange Criticism.

Members of the board of supervisors today denied that they are responsible for any unreasonable delay in proceeding with plans to construct either a bridge or a tube across the estuary.

"Action on this matter is being held up pending a necessary change in the state laws by the legislature," members of the board declared today following a committee of the whole meeting.

Their statements were made in answer to criticism made several days ago in a report submitted to the Merchants' Exchange by the chairman of one of that organization's committees, in which it was claimed that the board was not proceeding as rapidly as should be expected.

"In belief, a majority of the people in this county, particularly the shippers along the estuary, prefer a tube to a bridge," it was declared today by members of the board.

"Accordingly, we are proceeding first with plans to present the tube proposition to the voters, in the form of a bond issue on an election ballot, before going ahead with plans for a bridge. But before the tube proposition can be presented, it is necessary that the legislature make certain changes in the laws governing the construction of tubes, and that is what we are now awaiting."

In the event that the voters reject the tube proposition, the board will then proceed with plans to build a bridge across the estuary, it was announced.

ASK THE TRIBUNE

Bureau Information

"In what year did the last queen of the Hawaiian Islands die, and what was her name?"

Queen Liliuokalani was her name, and she died in 1917.

"What is the approximate number of families in Oakland?"

There are about 50,000 families in Oakland, and between 27,000 and 28,000 homes owned here.

"Tell me the proper way to address mail to a widow. Should the form be 'Mrs. Mary Smith' or 'Mrs. John Smith'?"

If she is a widow, it is considered correct. Owing to the prevalence of "grass" widows, however, many women prefer to use the form, "Mrs. John Smith," as an indication that they are not divorced.

The TRIBUNE Information Bureau will answer all questions of a general nature except school or legal problems, debates, trade and firm names and queries as to the time of day.

The bureau is open every day except Sunday from 8 a. m. to 9 p. m.

Answers are desired by mail stamps must be enclosed. Quickest results can be obtained by telephoning to the bureau. If you have any problems of a general nature to solve, ask the TRIBUNE Information Bureau, Lakeside 8900.

Mrs. I. L. Requa Passes Away In Historic Piedmont Home

Mother of Mark Requa, and Noted as Patriot and Philanthropist, Dies at 93.

Mrs. Isaac Lawrence Requa, 93, died early this morning at "The Highlands," the famous Piedmont estate which she has developed through the past half-century. Several weeks ago Mrs. Requa was afflicted with pneumonia, which caused her family great anxiety. She was believed to be convalescing when a relapse occurred. Her death occurred shortly after 2 o'clock this morning.

She is survived by a son, Mark L. Requa, a daughter, Mrs. Oscar F. Long, four granddaughters, a grandson and three great grandchildren. The grandchildren are Mrs. Charles Zook Sutton, Mrs. Salem Pohlman, Mrs. John Henry Russell of Los Angeles, Miss Alice Requa and Lawrence Requa.

WAS 93 YEARS OLD.
In June last Mrs. Requa celebrated her 93d anniversary of her birth, assembling in a reunion all the members of her family and a few close friends at her Piedmont mansion. Born in Bangor, Me., she came with her parents to California before the days of '49, by way of Cape Horn. Her mother died at the

FUGITIVE'S MOTHER TO RENDER AID

Mrs. Mary Arnold to Return to Minneapolis With Son, Who Is Accused of Stealing $14,000. While Clerk

Against the advice of physicians, Mrs. Mary Arnold of Minneapolis is making ready today to return to Minnesota with her son, Walter, now held in Oakland for the Minneapolis police. Walter is to be taken back to face a charge of stealing $14,000 from the American Railway Express Company in Minneapolis. The theft occurred on August 28, and Arnold, a night clerk in the office of the company, disappeared at the same time.

Mrs. Stella Bennett, aunt of Arnold's, appeared at San Francisco police headquarters today and turned over $975, which she said he had given her to keep for him. She asserted that he had made her a present of $500 additional to take a trip east, and it was while she was in Minneapolis that she learned of the theft and on her return here determined to hand over the money.

Arnold was arrested in Oakland Wednesday night, at the time of his disappearance from Minneapolis his mother collapsed and her health began to fail. She was ordered by physicians to come to California.

Yesterday Arnold asked a local newspaperman to get in touch with his aunt, Mrs. Stella W. Burnett, 240 Niles street, San Francisco. The reporter did so, and Mrs. Burnett informed him that the prisoner's mother had been ordered to California for her health, and was in San Francisco.

This was the first time since the son's disappearance, that either mother or son learned of the other's whereabouts. Their Thanksgiving reunion at the Oakland city prison was a dramatic one.

Arnold was arrested at Thirtieth street and Telegraph avenue by Patrolman William Parkus, following information from a Minneapolis acquaintance, who recognized him riding in an automobile. A detective is on his way here from Minneapolis to take the prisoner back.

Arnold told Inspector Richard Morley that he would waive extradition and plead guilty. Mrs. Arnold said that, although physicians had warned her against returning to Minneapolis in the winter months, she would go back with her boy in order to be near him in his present trouble.

Central Pacific company for 14 years. The death of Mrs. Requa marks the passing of almost the last of the original group of emigrants.

The first Red Cross meeting ever held in California was assembled in the Requa home. Mrs. Requa has from the beginning been a leader in the patriotic movement.

Since the death of her husband, Mrs. Requa has personally managed one of the largest estates in California. She has maintained the old family residence in which she has lived alone since the marriage of her children and the establishment of their own homes nearby. More than a year ago Mrs. Requa suffered a fall in which her hip was broken. She was obliged to use crutches since her recovery.

Woman Denies Theft of Coat
Mayme Kalon today pleaded not guilty to a charge of burglary when her case came up for trial in the local courts today.

She is said to have robbed Mrs. J. M. Holmes of 2769 Telegraph avenue of a squirrel coat. The theft of the coat is alleged to have occurred on September 16. Miss Kalon later was arrested in Denver. A coat answering the description of the one stolen from Mrs. Holmes was found in her trunk.

MILK DEALERS READY TO PLACE CARDS ON TABLE

Spokesman For Retailers Says Facts Will Be Ready At Conference Monday

The conference to be held between delegates of the Housewives' League of Alameda County and officials of the Retail Milk Dealers' Association in the Bacon building Monday afternoon will bring out many facts hitherto unknown to the public, according to a statement made by Chairman B. Burroughs of the association this morning.

"We are prepared to put all our cards on the table and let everybody know the exact truth from our side of the controversy," said Burroughs. "We have just published the facts regarding the prices of milk in the leading cities on the coast and the government reports show that our price is materially below the average price charged today. We would correct a misstatement sent out by the attorney for the producers in which it is said that the price paid by us for milk is 21 cents per gallon and that the margin between this figure and what we charge consumers is too large."

"I will give the Housewives proof that, for the eight months prior to September 1, the average price paid by the producers was 23.3 cents, and that the cost to us for November is 23.8 cents. This simply means that we are paying one-and-a-half cents a quart more than was paid when the price was 12 cents."

"The difference between cost to us and selling price today is 22 cents, and this includes the cost of transportation, handling, clarifying, pasteurizing, bottling, carting, packing, refrigeration and delivery to customers on railroad time. In addition, the requirements of the health board in Oakland are more exacting than in many cities, though none too much so, considering the great responsibility of the milk dealer to babies and children."

"The price of milk in Los Angeles, Long Beach or San Diego, where dairying conditions are more favorable the year round."

Condemnation Begun On Georgia Street

Condemnation proceedings were instituted today by the City of Oakland to provide for the opening and extending of Georgia street from its present terminus to Midvale avenue in accordance with a resolution adopted by the City Council some time ago. The complaint as filed by City Attorney Leon Gray names F. M. Smith, his wife, Evelyn Ellis Smith, the Central National Bank, Central Savings Bank, First National Bank, Sallie G. Ferrier, four "Does" and two "Doe" corporations as defendants.

WOULD BRAND WITNESS. CHICAGO.—This witness should be branded," said Judge Cooley of a man who had committed perjury.

BIG SWATH CUT THROUGH VERY HEART OF CITY

For the first time in the history of Oakland, a pedestrian may walk on Seventeenth street from Broadway to Harrison street. The street department has torn away all fences, garages and gardens, while the purchasers of the old houses have moved them, so that the big swath through central Oakland is now an accomplished fact.

At present the street looks as though somebody with an ax had run amuck through a collection of wooden buildings, cutting a straight line 160 feet wide but leaving considerable debris. While the work from Broadway to Harrison can be accomplished, City Engineer W. W. Hurmon warns citizens against undue haste. The future highway is now piled high with slats, plaster, nails, old boards, wallpaper and tin cans. In about two weeks, it is promised, the wreckage will all be cleared and the street will begin to appear something like a street. Then paving follows.

Another improvement for downtown Oakland is now finished. The broad sidewalks on the north side of Fourteenth street, from Harrison to Oak, now lay gleamingly white for the pedestrians. The job was completed Monday.

Marshal to Keep Oil Station Money

SAN LEANDRO, Dec. 1.—And now to the many and sundry titles with which Marshall J. F. Fecolia of this city is endowed, comes still another. The title, while not officially bestowed, will probably read "Lord High Keeper of the Oil Profits."

Because of recent instances of hold-ups of oil sub-stations, a company with such distinctive branches here has seen fit to purchase a small safe, with an opening at the top in which proceeds of the day may be deposited at five o'clock each evening. The safe will stand in the city marshal's office. Withdrawals can be made each morning and the money transferred to the local banks.

Native Daughters' Officers Returned

ALAMEDA PUPILS GIVE AID TO 147

ALAMEDA, Dec. 1.—Twenty-five local families were furnished with Thanksgiving dinners yesterday by high school students who expended $117 collected by them under the direction of Athletic Director Otto Rittler. The families included 147 persons and were selected from a list supplied by the Social Service Board. The Thanksgiving boxes contained enough groceries and provisions to last the families a week and represented money and food donated by students, with the co-operation of Alameda merchants.

Three Alameda Fires Burn Little

ALAMEDA, Dec. 1.—The Alameda fire department answered three alarms yesterday. The Security Drug company building in Park street, in a fire caused by faulty flues, suffered $400 loss, it is estimated.

Spark from the chimney at the A. Zobel home, 1208 Lafayette street, set fire to the roof, resulting in a loss of $500. An overheated fire-place in the home of O. Rogers, 615 Pacific avenue, caused a small blaze.

AUTOIST SENT TO JAIL. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 1.—Walter Craig, 913 Eddy street, who ran into a taxicab Monday, injuring Joseph Harvey, and who had a bottle of whiskey in his possession, was given ninety days in the county jail for reckless driving today by Police Judge McAtee.

Kidney and Bladder Troubles HAVE TO GO

Clogged Up Kidney Deposits Are Dissolved and the Toxins (Poisons) Completely Driven Out—Guarantee It in Every Instance.

"You, very likely," says Dr. Carey, "are suffering from kidney troubles, and health of your kidneys, so whatever you do don't neglect them."

Dr. Carey's famous Prescription No. 777 (known for years as Marshall's) is not recommended for everything, but we cannot too strongly urge its use if you suffer from annoying bladder troubles, frequent passing of water, night and day, with smarting or irritation, brick dust sediment or highly colored urine, bloating, irritability with loss of flesh, or any other tendency to Bright's Disease, Diabetes or Gravel, for kidney disease in its worst form may be stealing upon you.

Don't wait until tomorrow to begin the use of this wonderful prescription now obtainable in both liquid and tablet form if you have any of the above symptoms. Kidney and Bladder troubles don't wear away. They will grow upon you slowly, stealthily and with unfailing certainty. If you even suspect that you are subject to Kidney Disease, don't lose a single day for Owl Drug Co. and every good druggist has been authorized to return the purchase money on the first big bottle to all who state they have received no benefit.—Advertisement.

Officers Elected By Girls' Reserve

SAN LEANDRO, Dec. 1.—Complete organization, with election of officers, was effected at a meeting of the San Leandro Girls' Reserve here. The following officers will preside for the pending term: Miss Doris Duck, president; Miss Isabel Payne, vice-president; Miss Dorothy Davis, secretary; Miss Georgia Young, treasurer. The reserve, under the indirect auspices of the Oakland Y. W. C. A., and directly responsive to the first Presbyterian church of this city, is composed entirely of girls of high school age. Mrs. O. Z. Rest is superintending the welfare of the unit.

Red Cross Drive To Be Continued

SAN LEANDRO, Dec. 1.—The cause results were not up to expectations continuation of the Red Cross Roll Call, a membership and fund-raising drive will continue for at least two weeks more. It was announced today by Mrs. B. P. Mason, chairman. The reason for the unsatisfactory showing, as stated by the chairman, was the press of other events that demand a considerable portion of members' time. Aid for the local Boy Scout troops offered during the past weeks of the drive, will be once more requested.

LOS ANGELES MAN SAYS I NEVER FAILS

"Tanlac is my stand-by and I wouldn't think of being without it. This medicine has set me on my feet more than once when I had such bad spells of stomach trouble. I thought I couldn't get well. This emphatic statement was made recently by W. C. Wallace, 320 N. Normandie Place, Los Angeles, Calif."

"An acid stomach and indigestion caused me the most indescribable suffering for more than four years," he said. "Awful pains would strike me soon after eating and I would be almost doubled up in agony. In my miserable condition I would be simply good for nothing and had to take to my bed. I would lose much weight with every spell. I was told I had ulcers, enlarged stomach and other ailments, but all my efforts to get relief failed. I kept getting worse and I figured I would have to get something to help me or I couldn't keep going much longer."

"I read in the papers where Tanlac was helping others with stomach troubles, so I began taking it. It never failed to straighten me out, and I gained back my lost weight too. I am more grateful than I can say for the good this medicine has done me, and I do not hesitate to give it my fullest recommendation."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.—Advertisement.

BLACKMAIL, SAYS DOCTOR ACCUSED BY S. J. WOMAN

Physician Released on Bail
After Arrest on Charge of False Pretenses.

SAN JOSE, Dec. 1.—The arrest here yesterday of Dr. V. Reno, physician with offices in the Bank of Italy building, on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses sworn to by Mrs. M. DeVittorio of this city is an attempt to blackmail Dr. Reno, according to the arrest of physician's attorney, Richard Bressani. "When all other attempts to extort money from Dr. Reno failed, the women attempted to blackmail him through the law," Bressani stated to THE TRIBUNE last night. "It is an outrage and I am confident that I will beat the case for Dr. Reno. I have been working on this attempted blackmail scheme for several months." According to the story told by Mrs. DeVittorio, Dr. Reno treated her with a serum which he said would cure her nervous troubles and for which she paid the sum of $900. The serum failed to do the

Stranger Steals Into Jail at Petaluma

PETALUMA, Dec. 1.—Instead of allowing all the prisoners to escape when the door of the city jail here was accidentally left open Thanksgiving eve, one man entered to become a resident. Doubtless the fact that jail wardens often provide turkey for prisoners on Thanksgiving led to the visitor's appearance, Chief M. Flohr said. When he was discovered it was evident, according to the chief, that the man had been working up an appetite with too many cocktails of denatured alcohol. He was taken to the county hospital where he is recovering.

Attorney Bressani last night arranged for bail, fixed at $3000 by Judge C. L. Witten, before whom the complaint was sworn, and Dr. Reno was released from the county jail late yesterday. The arrest was made by Deputy Sheriffs E. A. Raymond and George Pyne. Officers at the county jail said yesterday that Dr. Reno was almost inconsolable as a result of his arrest. Dr. Reno has been practicing here but a short time, having come from Los Angeles.

Pedestrian Injured By Auto on Highway

SAN JOSE, Dec. 1.—Suffering from a badly fractured leg and possible internal injuries, Edward Furst, of Santa Clara is today a patient in the county hospital, where he was rushed last night after having been struck by an automobile on the state highway between Santa Clara and Sunnyvale. While the name of the driver of the car which struck Furst was not obtained, witnesses say the driver stopped and rendered all possible assistance to his victim. Dr. Woolgar, of the county hospital staff, who is attending Furst, said last night that he did not know the exact extent of the accident victim's injuries.

SAN JOSE, Dec. 1.—Prisoners of the Santa Clara county jail were yesterday given a real Thanksgiving treat in the form of a turkey dinner, with all the usual home trimmings. Through the kindness of Miss Ramona Pearson, of Alum Rock avenue, Sheriff George W. Sheriff Lyle personally provided funds for some of the trimmings, which included soup, rice, celery and onion salad, chicken dumplings, assorted pies and coffee.

A AUTO RACE POSTPONED WHEN RAIN WETS TRACK

250-Mile Classic to Be Run Off Sunday; De Palma
Must Go to Jail.

By AL G. WADDELL
Former Member Contest Board, A. A. A.
LOS ANGELES SPEEDWAY, Dec. 1. — C. P. Fluvius was the winner of the annual 250 miles championship automobile race here yesterday afternoon. The classic has been postponed until Sunday afternoon. Eighteen of the greatest speed kings the world has ever developed on eighteen of the fastest cars science has ever produced, and approximately 75,000 speed sport followers, were disappointed when a cold drizzling rain began to fall and the fast board speedway became as smooth as greased glass. Never before had a race held such promise; and the disappointment was keen for drivers and spectators alike. Cliff Durant of Oakland, entrant of the five Durant specials and himself a driver on the Durant team, suggested the postponement. "I say postpone the race till Sunday afternoon," he said, and the move was immediately seconded by other stars of the speedway. There were a few who did not approve of the decision, but from most of the fans came only expressions of satisfaction as they realized that it was "murder" to try to run a race on a track as slippery as the boards were this afternoon. When the races run Sunday, Ralph De Palma will not be among those present. He is to go to Madera tomorrow to begin serving a ten-day jail sentence for speeding, and his car is to be piloted by Ernie Ansterberg, who was formerly a mechanic to the late Roscoe Saries. In practice last week, Ansterberg drove De Palma's car in a tryout and turned close to 120 miles an hour, thus proving that there is another speed prince at court. Local newspaper men announced today that they would attempt to persuade the judge to suspend sentence until after the race, so that the fans can cheer De Palma for the very thing he is going to jail for—speed.

He was rushed here for medical treatment and later removed to Merced.

Hindu Suicide To Try Return From Beyond

MARYSVILLE, Dec. 1.—"I wish I could come back and tell you folks what becomes of the soul hereafter, but I don't think it will be possible," read one of the striking phrases in a series of suicide notes left by Jinder Dhillon, a Hindu student, who has been a deep student of Hindu mysticism and a student at the Oregon Agricultural college, whose body was found today in a rooming house here. A portion of a chocolate bar which contained the poison with which he ended his life was found beside him. Dhillon came from India, where his father is a professor of agriculture, a year ago. A brother is soon to follow him, planning to register at the University of California. Dhillon was a recent visitor at Berkeley, where he stopped for time with his fellow countrymen, who are members of a Hindu house club of university students.

Commenting on the possibility of his return, Dhillon said: "I will try to return. I am no longer worthy of living in this world. That which cannot be mended must be ended."

Dhillon in the course of his many notes described the symptoms of death.

"I am taking my bed at 11:45 p. m., as my breath is leaving me," he said in one note.

"I wonder if there is any radio in hell?" he queried in another, adding:

"Follows, death is easy. It is unavoidable."

The only motive officials have been able to learn for his suicide was deep sorrow felt by the young student over the fact that his companions were not living up to the high ideals of the Hindu philosophy in this country.

He wrote a letter to the mayor, complaining of vice conditions, resulting today in the starting of a vice crusade.

Clemenceau Passes Day in Seclusion

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Dec. 1.—(By the Associated Press.)—Georges Clemenceau, former premier of France, who is touring the United States to bring closer relations of French and Americans, will pass today in seclusion at the home of Joseph Pulitzer, Jr., publisher of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, after arriving this morning from Litchfield, Ill., where his private car laid up last night.

Tomorrow the "Tiger" will meet the St. Louis Clemenceau reception committee at Pulitzer's home and head an automobile parade through the city. He is to deliver his fourth formal address to the American people at 2 o'clock.

Special police will surround Clemenceau's motorcade, guarding Georges Clemenceau against any possible attack on his life.

Decoto Ready to Pay Prisoners' Cost

Declaring that he disagrees with City Attorney Leon Gray's interpretation of the state law to the effect that it is the county's and not the city's responsibility to send into other states after prisoners wanted here, District Attorney Decoto today asserted that rather than permit alleged violators of the law to go free, he will use the machinery of his own office to bring them here for trial.

This, it is believed, may provide a temporary solution to the deadlock that has existed between city and county authorities ever since Gray, several days ago, ruled that the custom of the Oakland police department to send its own officers out of the state to bring arrested men here for trial, was illegal and should be discontinued.

Slayer of Aged Wife Is Executed

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Dec. 1. James E. Mahoney was hanged at the State penitentiary here today for the murder of his aged wife, Kate Mahoney, at Seattle, in April, 1921. He was pronounced dead at 11:15 a. m.

Mahoney went to the gallows calmly. Thirty-six hours previously he confessed the crime to forestal a reported effort by his sister, Mrs. Mahoney, to secure his pardon by confessing the murder herself.

None of his kin was with him in his final hour.

ELEVATOR FALLS, 15 PASSENGERS ESCAPE INJURY

A city hall elevator carrying 15 passengers fell into the basement today when the operator was unable to stop it at the first floor landing. The automatic safety device on the basement floor broke the force of the fall and no one was injured.

The elevator in charge of Fred Craig was carrying school teachers who had just received their pay and taxpayers. It is thought that the elevator was overloaded.

The glass doors of the elevator were broken by the fall and the occupants were showered with flying glass. The doors jammed and were forced open with difficulty.

FOUR MEN DIE AS FIRE, BLAST DESTROY HOTEL

Police and Taxicab Men's Heroic Efforts at Rescue
Halted By Explosion.

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 1.—Four men lost their lives in a fire which broke out about 1:10 o'clock this morning in the furnace room of the Sen Hur hotel, formerly the Oak hotel, a three-story frame building, located in the downtown hotel and business district. None of the dead has been identified.

Taxicab drivers and police did heroic work in arousing guests from the hotel until an explosion on the third floor, the cause of which is unknown, forced them to leave the burning building.

The building was destroyed. The loss is estimated at about $50,000, the heaviest loss being a firm of furniture dealers, occupying the ground floor of the hotel building.

The hotel was leased by a Mrs. Goldstein, who is at present visiting in San Francisco.

The guests at the Benson and Oregon hotels, two of the principal hotels here, adjoining the burning building, were aroused by the management and warned to be prepared to leave in case the fire could not be checked.

News Notes of Vallejo And U. S. Navy Yard

VALLEJO, Dec. 1.—Many boys of Solano county arrived here this morning to inspect the Sperry mill at South Vallejo, and the big government establishment at Mare Island. The youths are to be tendered a banquet this evening at the Y. M. C. A. on Sonoma street. The young men will camp at the Blue Rock Springs tonight and tomorrow morning they will inspect the St. John mine.

Contractors are rushing the work on the east side of San Pablo bay and it is expected that the staging will soon be removed from that section of the building. A large sum of money has been spent in making the hall an up-to-date meeting place. It is expected to be ready for the dedication ceremonies on or about the first of the year.

Rev. Father J. D. Rice, parish priest of St. Vincent's church, officiated at the high mass which was celebrated yesterday morning in memory of the departed brothers of Vallejo Council, No. 874, Knights of Columbus.

Supervisor D. M. Fleming is making good progress in the construction of the new highway on Fleming avenue north of town. The road will be used by the high school students and County Club members when finished.

The reinforced concrete foundation is being installed at the site of the new Grimes' building on Marin street near Virginia. Edward Grimes expects to have the structure ready for occupancy early in January.

Clayton W. Greene, president of the Vallejo Builders Supply Company, has returned from Portland, Oregon, where he was in attendance at a lumbermen's convention.

According to the official report to the city council the water gauge in Lake No. 1 shows 19 feet 2 inches, while at Lake No. 2 the gauge reads 65 feet 7 inches.

The foundation has been completed for the new firehouse at Sacramento and York streets. The material for the two-story structure is expected to arrive from San Francisco during the next week or so.

Many of the navy yard colony are expected to attend the dance to be held next Saturday evening by the league of women voters. The affair is being arranged by a committee with Mrs. Eugene Dannenbaum as chairman.

Walter Thomas Mills of Berkeley has been invited to come here on December 8 to deliver a lecture before the Vallejo housewife's league on "The Good Housewife."

The football eleven representing the Mare Island sailors and the Mare Island shipwrights will meet at the Vallejo high school gridiron on Sunday morning to settle their football dispute.

SHERIFF NUTZES YOUNG SUSPECTS ABOUT HOLD-UPS

Ten Said to Answer to Description of Robbers
At San Jose.

SAN JOSE, Dec. 1.—Two youths, suspects answering the description of two reckless young bandits who were responsible for the latest of a series of local hold-ups, were questioned at the sheriff's office today without eliciting any response from them except denials that they were the men wanted.

The bandits held up Mike Purich and Richard Kay on the Meridian road. They drew up alongside the men and produced ugly looking revolvers. With threats to "blow your heads off if you move" they forced the men to hand over their valuables, getting an $850 stipend and an overcoat from Purich and about $5 in cash from Kay.

The hold-up men then escaped in their machine, which was, however, recovered a short time later near the scene of the crime. The youths, who answer the description of the bandits, were picked up near where the machine was found and officers are almost certain these are the men wanted.

Taft to Be Witness

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—Chief Justice Taft was named today in a statement to the House judiciary committee by Representative Keller, Republican, Minnesota, as a witness to be called in support of his demand for the impeachment of Attorney General Daugherty.

The chief justice was desired to testify, Keller wrote, in connection with his charge formally filed that Attorney General Daugherty had appointed "untrustworthy, corrupt and dangerous men" to high office, knowing at the time that they were men of such character.

Setting forth fourteen specific grounds for impeachment, Keller

COBLENZ, Dec. 1.—(By the Associated Press.)—Sixty-seven American veterans of the world war, sixteen of them with their wives and seven children, left here today on the Paris express, bound for Cherbourg, where they will embark on the steamer President Polk for New York. Most of the men are without funds. Five of them were sent here by Vice Consul Straub at Coblenz.

The Rhineland Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, took care of the party before leaving Coblenz, and paid the expense to Cherbourg. Many of the men had been in business in Germany, but failed when the mark slumped in value. The others had been trying for two years to make a living in Europe.

We have tried both ways of merchandising—service and self-service—and have found to our entire satisfaction which is the best. The crowds (yes, we know what the word crowds mean) which favor us with their patronage also know which is the best for them. Our customers even tell us to our face how much they like our system, and, believe us, when they come day after day, many times bringing their friends and neighbors with them, they as well as we—

CHINESE STEALS

CHINESE STEALS TO CANCEL DEBT

(International News Service Staff Correspondent.)

SHANGHAI, Dec. 1.—With the festival of the Peleandess Ghost still at its height, preparations are being made for the Harvest Moon Festival which takes place the middle of this month. The special feature of this festival, which is one of thanksgiving to the gods for the blessings of the year, is that every debt must be paid. On the fifteenth day of the eighth moon when the great round moon, like an exquisitely carved piece of luminous white jade, rises in the clear sky above debt must be settled, and the books containing the accounts destroyed.

A case came up in the mixed court of Shanghai recently which illustrates to what length a desperate Chinese will go in order to get money to pay his debts.

Mr. Wong is a small shopkeeper and business has been bad. Realizing that he owed some $300 and not being able to raise the money, he stole his neighbor's pretty little girl and sold her to a man who owned a number of beautiful singing girls. These girls are trained from childhood in the arts of entertainment and are called to the big Chinese feasts to sing for the guests during dinner. The girls, who are like exquisite butterflies in their pink and lavender, jade green and delicate blue satin coats and trousers, are accompanied to the feasts by the chaperones and musicians who play for them on quaint two-stringed instruments while they sing.

The shopkeeper received $225 for the little girl, as she was unusually beautiful. The money was in gold bars. All would have been well for he was not suspected of the crime which brought sorrow to his neighbor's family, had not a visitor dropped in unexpectedly and caught a glimpse of the money. Knowing that his friend had been desperately hard up the day before, he demanded an explanation of his sudden wealth.

The frightened shopkeeper told him the secret, and the man demanded a share of the money as silence money. Wishing to dispose of the money, and yet not be suspected, the man sewed the gold bars in his trousers and departed for Ningpo. Just as he was boarding the boat he was arrested, for by the mysterious methods used by the Chinese the crime was traced to his door. He was sentenced to three years' imprisonment.

Stolen Clothing Is Found in Lot

SAN LEANDRO, Dec. 1.—Believed to be evidence of the depredations of the gang of marauders who have been operating here during the past two weeks, a large bundle of clothing, valued at $100, was found in a vacant lot yesterday by city marshal's assistants. The bundle was from a San Francisco clothing and destined for Hayward. The company from which the bundle originated was notified.

Boy Fools Firemen, Father Handles Case

CINCINNATI, O., Dec. 1.—A twelve-year-old boy who turned in a case of some excitement got a lot more than he had planned for when a policeman chased him to his home. The boy's father heard the policeman's story and then declared his ability to handle the case alone. The policeman listened for a while to sounds emanating from the woodshed and then reported that the "case was closed satisfactorily."

Notre Dame Defeated by Cornhuskers

Nebraska Eleven Crushed Knute Rockne's Team in 14-6 Contest.

LINCOLN, Neb., Dec. 1.—Nebraska University crowned her string of football achievements on Nebraska Field here yesterday by demonstrating a superior quality of football in a sectional contest with Notre Dame University the game ending with the Cornhuskers on the larger end of a 14 to 6 score.

More than 15,000 spectators watched the Nebraska team plow great holes through the line of the South end team. Notre Dame was not lacking in making gains, though the scale hung heavily in favor of the victorious Cornhuskers. While the much touted aerial game of Notre Dame was not employed to the advantage that was expected, it served at times to make ground and the only touchdown scored by the South Benders. Miller's great run down the side line after a fair catch of Layden's forward pass in the third period, was one of the outstanding spectacular features of the game.

B. Bewitz paralleled this achievement in the fourth period, except for the touchdown, when he plunged through the left side of Notre Dame's line for 40 yards, bringing the ball to the opponents' 15-yard line. A lucky tackle by Stuhldrueher saved a touchdown.

In the first period, Nebraska lost a touchdown by a costly fumble by Noble when the ball was within a few feet of the goal line.

Nebraska's scores were made in the second period. The first came after a series of line plunges by Noble, Russell, Layden and Hartley had advanced the ball to within 18 yards of Notre Dame's goal line. Scherer, the Cornhusker right end, run to his co-end's corner for 16 yards, which brought the ball to the two-yard line. Hartley plowed through the remaining distance for the touchdown and then dropped back for the extra point. Later in the period Hartley shot a forward pass to Noble, who broke loose around Notre Dame's left end for the second touchdown. It was a gain of 58 yards. Captain Hartley placed the goal for the extra point. Nebraska 14. Pos. Notre Dame 6.

Pennsylvania Falls Before Dobie's Team

Cornell Eleven Remains Undeclared For Second Straight Season.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 1.—Gill Dobie's powerful eleven from Cornell defeated the University of Pennsylvania yesterday, 9 to 0, on straight football and remains the only big team in the east which has not been beaten for two years. It was the first time Pennsylvania failed to score this season. The last game Cornell lost was to Pennsylvania on Thanksgiving Day, 1920.

A placement goal by Hanson in the first period and a touchdown by Cassidy in the third make up the total of Cornell's efforts that counted today but give no indication of the offensive and the complete superiority of the Red team. The highly touted defensive of Pennsylvania was hopeless against the rushes of Captain Kaw, Pfann, Ramsey and Cassidy, while its offensive was weak and failed to uncover anything new.

Fifty-five thousand persons saw the game.

The Cornell back-field plunged through the enemy's line almost at will, Pfann being the individual hero, with Kaw, Ramsey and Cassidy only a shade less prominent in the attack.

The first score came after a sharp series of rushes which brought the Red eleven to within 12 yards of the Quaker goal. Pennsylvania forwards staged a rally then and Cornell made only two yards in three attempts. On the fourth down Kaw threw a forward pass to Gouinlock, who was forced out of bounds on Pennsylvania's three-yard line before he could make the necessary distance. Pennsylvania took the ball and Hamer punted to Cornell on Pennsylvania's 35-yard line. Cornell's offensive was checked again and then Hanson kicked a placement goal from the 23-yard line.

The touchdown in the third period came after a series of line plunges through tackle and end runs by Pfann, Ramsey and Cassidy, the ball being carried all the way down the field from Pennsylvania's 40-yard line. Hanson failed to kick the goal.

Plunging Saints Batter Way Through Santa Clara

Holes were opened in the Santa Clara line by the charging work of the St. Mary's forwards yesterday. (Above), the Saints are opening a hole at Santa Clara's left tackle. Note the end being taken out as STRADER comes through. BLACK is seen in the center ready to act as interference. (Below), DUCKY GRANT, St. Mary's star halfback, is seen tearing through on an off-tackle buck that carried him close to the Santa Clara goal line. Captain Black is again in evidence in the foreground, while MOSSE PATRICK, Santa Clara halfback, is seen at the extreme right, coming up to meet the play.

St. Paul Boy Matched With Jimmy Duffy

Built Reputation With Such Boys as O'Hara, Davis and Harper.

After shooting wires north and south in search of a suitable opponent for Jimmy Duffy next Wednesday night, Tommy Simpson finally decided to use Jimmy Sacco of St. Paul. Sacco is now in the south, and is expected to arrive here in a couple of days. Travis Davis could not accept a match with Duffy on such short notice. Ray Long was another considered for Duffy's opponent. Simpson is satisfied that he has a real main event with Sacco meeting Duffy, as the St. Paul boy has shown class against the best boys of his weight in both the north and south. He defeated Bobby Harper and Travis Davis, and also won a decision over Teddy O'Hara in Los Angeles about four weeks ago. Local fan-fans know how good a boy it takes to beat O'Hara, so will be expecting to see Sacco put up a good argument with Jimmy Duffy. Sacco lost a close decision to Ray Long, but that was when he was suffering with a bad wrist. The remainder of the card will be announced tomorrow.

ROCKY GETS DECISION. BUFFALO—Rock, Kansas, Buffalo, won over Pete Hartley, New York, in ten rounds.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Dec. 1.—With changes in the third and fourth places in the five-man team event of the Mid-West Bowling Tournament here last night, attack on the leading positions was renewed today. Bowlers from Dayton, Ind., are slated to roll this afternoon, and from Boone, Ind., Des Moines and Denver tonight.

Vandals Win 39-0 Over Montana

MISSOULA, Mont., Dec. 1.—An aerial attack, mixed with a flawless defense gave the University of Idaho an easy victory over the University of Montana eleven here yesterday afternoon by a score of 39 to 0. The Idaho Vandals were never in danger of being defeated.

Martinez High Forfeits Game To Berkeleyans

BERKELEY HIGH will not meet Martinez tomorrow as scheduled, owing to a forfeiture on the part of the latter. The Yellow-jackets are staying in their hive for two weeks, resting for the battle with the winner of the Salinas-San Mateo game. The Martinezians were easily beaten by Napa high, and Berkeley defeated Napa last Friday by six touchdowns. The boys from the Straits considered it useless to keep up their training and take time from basketball practice to meet Berkeley, with its long string of victories. The winner of the Salinas-San Mateo game will play Berkeley a week from tomorrow.

Berkeley now holds the title of champs of the Class B branch of the C. I. F. The game a week from tomorrow will settle the championship of the A and B branches.

Stands Collapse; Scores Are Hurt

Idaho to 19-19 Tie Harvard Grad Explains His Early Stand

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Dec. 1.—Lathrop Withington, member of the Harvard advisory football committee, in a letter to the Harvard alumni bulletin made public today, gives his version of what he said at a Princeton alumni dinner in Boston on the night before the Harvard-Princeton game of November 11. He denies that he intimated that Harvard might give up football games with Princeton. He says that in his speech he remarked that the Harvard-Yale-Princeton athletic agreement meant that the schedule would be cut to five games and that Western alumni of Harvard were constantly urging that a game be played in the Middle West "and we cannot fail to give their demands some consideration."

"Following the present arrangement," he quotes himself as having said, "Princeton would be the third game on the schedule and if we played a game with a western team, it could not well be before the Princeton game, which would mean three hard games in a row, and you can well realize that this would not leave much for play in the Yale game. For my own part I am not only anxious for a Harvard-Princeton game, but sincerely hope it will continue."

Schedule of Rugby Will Be Planned

Western Conference Athletic Heads Gather to Arrange 1923 Dates.

CHICAGO, Dec. 1.—Schedule makers of the Western Conference gathered here today preliminary to the meeting tomorrow to arrange football, baseball and track schedules for the 1923 campaign in "Big Ten" athletics.

Chief interest in mapping out the schedule, the athletic directors of the Western Conference universities will hold their annual meeting tonight, and later will hold a joint meeting with the faculty representatives of the universities.

The conference, indoor track and field championships, the swimming championship meet, and the outdoor track and field championship meet also will be awarded and the dates set.

Chief interest in the meetings centers in the arranging of the 1923 gridiron campaign and the future of intercollegiate games. Iowa has under consideration an invitation to play another game with Yale while Chicago, it is understood, would like to make another two-year agreement for home and home games with Princeton. Yale wants Iowa, which scored a 6 to 0 triumph over the Elis this season, to make another appearance in the Yale bowl next fall.

"We are willing to continue football relations with Princeton," said A. A. Stagg, veteran director of athletics at the University of Chicago today, commenting on the invitation for another Yale-Iowa game in 1923.

"However, in view of the conflicting reports in regard to the Harvard, Yale and Princeton agreement, I would not care to take the time in arranging for future contests. But if the proposal should come from Princeton, we would give it every consideration."

The resolution of the Western Conference university presidents last year suggesting the abandonment of intercollegiate games is expected to be more clearly defined as a result of the meetings today and tomorrow. It is believed the prohibition of intercollegiate games involving long trips, such as Ohio State to the Pacific Coast two years ago, and that the faculty representatives will not prohibit intercollegiate games in 1923, provided the players are not away from their university for too long a period.

New alliances are expected to be formed in the Western Conference schedules. Wisconsin desires to arrange a game for 1923 with the midwestern Iowa eleven, dropping Illinois for the Badger program, while Michigan desires to resume football relations with Chicago. It is considered probable that Ohio will not renew its home and home game with Minnesota.

There is a strong possibility that Iowa will be added to Chicago's schedule, while Coach Stagg also will be forced to consider the problem of continuing relations to the Maroon program for next season. Minnesota desires to arrange home and home games with Illinois and Chicago, both of which formerly were on the Gophers' schedule.

GOLF

By W. D. McNICOLL.

The finalists in the Berkeley Club Annual Championship decided to postpone their match until Saturday when Thanksgiving festivities will have had time to adjust themselves. Some excellent matches should result from the following draws:

Championship Flight—Dr. E. A. Krueger vs. F. L. King vs. C. E. Joekel.

Second Flight—W. D. Ellis vs. C. E. Joekel.

Third Flight—C. W. Skeggs vs. Dr. H. W. Moore.

Fourth Flight—G. A. Scott vs. Dr. E. Clement.

Fifth Flight—N. Newsome vs. T. L. Rogers.

Sixth Flight—H. L. Miner vs. W. F. Bryant.

Claremont and Sequoyah were without any official or impromptu events, but quite a few players were out in friendly matches. F. E. McGurran and Dr. C. H. Walter were having an excellent match, the doctor being 2 under pars when a S. O. S. call stopped the match. Mr. McGurran and Dr. Walter have been invited to participate in the San Francisco Golf and Country Club's big invitational tournament, but it is doubtful if either will be able to compete. McGurran has out-of-town business to look after, and the Northern Amateur Champion, although most anxious to take part, is usually too busy to cross the bay four days in succession.

F. J. Hadden, Archie Andrew and three cornered match Dr. Stineham was one under four at the Pond hole, but the seventeenth and eighteenth spoiled his chances for a par round and 75 was recorded. Archie Andrew defeated "Mike" Hadden.

Trojans Win 41-3 Contest From Cougars

Washington State Scores
Lone Tally With Field Goal.

PASADENA, Dec. 1.—The Washington State College football team, which was defeated here yesterday by the University of Southern California squad, 41 to 3, planned to leave today for Fullerton, Wash.

The feature of the game yesterday, aside from the Trojans' overwhelming victory, was the lone Cougar score made in the first few minutes of the game, a place kick by Vera Hickley on the 43-yard line from a difficult angle. The kick was one of the finest seen here this year, the ball sailing squarely over the cross-bar.

After the Cougar score the Trojan offense opened and before the game ended six touchdowns were made. It was the first time this year, except against the California Bears, that Coach Elmer C. ("Gloomy Gus") Henderson had given the U. S. C. eleven his permission to use their best scoring plays. The Trojans made 27 first downs, Washington State made four, one from scrimmage, one on a forward pass and two on penalties.

Undeclared Eleven Wants to Come West

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 1. Rutherford high school for four years winner of the interscholastic football championship of New Jersey wants to come to the Pacific Coast to meet the champions of California, Washington or Oregon, in an east vs. west contest on New Year's day, according to word received here from "Dick" Taylor, who is in charge of the Rutherford eleven. At first it was suggested that the high school game precede the east vs. west game at Pasadena between Penn State and a team managed by the Pacific Coast Conference, but it was decided that this was impracticable.

Fans who attended the St. Mary's-Santa Clara game yesterday came away with a vast feeling of satisfaction over the game they had seen but unable to tell who had done anything. The whole situation was the result of an apparently unavoidable mixup in the numbering of the St. Mary's players.

A new set of jerseys arrived late yesterday, after the programs had been printed, with the result that the players bore different numbers from those appearing in the program.

"The change of numbers was not made in an effort to confuse Santa Clara and I greatly regret that the St. Mary's authorities neglected to give out the information regarding these changes before the game," said Coach "Slip" Madigan last night.

All of which goes to show that there is urgent need of an announcer at football games, as there is at baseball games.

Situations such as this can always be explained afterwards but when a crowd of 10,000 sit through four quarters unable to tell one player from another, unless they happen to know them by sight, much of the interest is taken away however good the game may be.

Wayne Hall Named

SEATTLE, Wash., Dec. 1.—The football team of the University of Washington yesterday afternoon elected Wayne Hall of Spokane captain for next year. MORGANTOWN, W. Va., Dec. 1.—For the first time in its football history which reaches back to 1891, West Virginia University has played through a season without a defeat as a result of yesterday's victory over Washington and Jefferson College, 14 to 0. There was no scoring in the first half. In the third period West Virginia scored a touchdown on a double pass. A forward pass over the goal line in the last period scored the second touchdown. Washington and Jefferson's only opportunity to score came in the second quarter when four successive first downs gave them the ball on West Virginia's 26-yard line where Simon intercepted a forward pass. ## Western Team To Be Chosen Within Week

CORVALLIS, Ore., Dec. 1.—"I can see difficulties ahead in the selection of the western team to play Penn State at Pasadena." This was Dr. U. G. Duback's statement today in commenting on the outcome of Thanksgiving Day games. The president of the Pacific Coast Conference said that selection may be deferred until the conference meeting in Seattle, December 8 and 9.

"Voting blanks have been mailed to all the members of the conference but it is unlikely that an agreement can be reached immediately," he stated. "The tie game between Oregon and Washington complicates matters considerably."

Dr. Duback indicated that the University of Southern California, University of Oregon and University of Washington were the teams under consideration.

England Wins From Scotland at Soccer

Scoring four goals against two of their opponents, the English soccer team took the honors in the first of the series of international soccer matches yesterday afternoon at Washington Park, Alameda, from Scotland.

The two teams were composed of star players of the Bay Cities League teams.

Sharer scored the first tally of the game for the Scots in the first half but Dyer evened the score with a well placed shot. Livingston put the Scots into the lead just before the half ended but in the second period the English ran at will, their forward line passing perfectly to score three goals in rapid succession.

Charley Moran Signs Contract For Five Years

DANVILLE, Ky., Dec. 1.—Rumors current for the last month that Charles Moran, Center College football coach, was considering outside offers, were at rest today, following announcement yesterday by Athletic Director Meyers that "Uncle Charlie" had signed a five-year contract with the Centre College Athletic Association. Some uneasiness had been caused among Centre supporters by the rumors, in which the University of Alabama was among those mentioned as bidding for Moran's services.

It was "Uncle Charlie" who groomed the "Praying Colonel" for their first offensive against Harvard and who has taught them their gridiron tricks since then. Plans for the erection of a concrete bowl on Cleek Field, to be named Moran Stadium, have been approved by the Athletic Association, Director Meyers said.

Following the game yesterday with the University of South Carolina, the Colonels elected Edwin Kubale, captain for 1923. Kubale, a sophomore, is from Fort Smith, Ark., and has played two years on the team.

WOOL AND COTTON

Woolen and Cotton

IN HUGE MERGER

Dominant Factors in These Two Industries Combine in Stock Ownership.

By J. C. ROYLE.

BY CONSOLIDATED PRESS.
NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—The trend toward industrial alliance and expansion in the United States is in full swing. Tendency was strikingly exemplified by announcement made today that President William M. Wood and other executives of the American Woolen Company had associated themselves with the direction of the affairs of the Consolidated Textile Company, one of the dominant factors in the cotton textile industry.

The remarkable feature of this latest joining of forces is that all parties interested insisted that it be accomplished on financial conditions which would be practically identical. The shortage of production in both wool and cotton has caused increase in prices, which show no indication of halting in their advance. Prices for finished goods and cotton goods have advanced, but have not kept pace with the spurts in prices of raw materials. In past years the prices of cotton goods sometimes followed the advances or declines of the raw staple to the extent of 50 per cent, but seldom were affected as much as 65 per cent.

The full effect of price advances in cotton and woolen goods has not yet been felt by the public and will not be fully apparent until prices of raw materials and cotton goods are acquired at lower prices. For the time being the averaging of costs has prevented the sharp advance in finished goods prices, but there is every prospect that price advances will not be long delayed.

Manufacturers are firm in the belief that such advances will find strenuous opposition from the consuming public, although they do not expect the sharp drop in consumption which took place in 1921. That is the situation which textile men are facing and those closely connected with this latest alliance of textile executives point out that the hope of the industries involved is that the new organization will be able to produce goods at lower cost by effective and efficient management.

It is indicated that the services of Mr. Wood will be utilized in the buying and manufacturing end of the Consolidated Textile business, while F. K. Ruprecht, president of Consolidated and also of Converse & Co., great cotton distributors, will utilize his experience in selling and distributing.

PLANTS RUNNING FULL.
William M. Wood has brought American Woolen to a point where its plants now are running at better than 80 per cent of capacity and has been singularly successful in providing for the needs of the American Woolen Company, a margin of profit over many competitors. American Woolen, evidently forecasting the wage trend, did not reduce wages last spring, and has had no labor trouble. The B. & R. Knight mills of Consolidated, with plants in Rhode Island and Massachusetts, were tied up for months by a strike of operatives against a 30 per cent wage reduction and only recently resumed full operation.

The difficulties of the cotton mills may be more thoroughly appreciated when it is realized that not more than half the amount necessary to supply the needs of American mills has yet left the hands of holders, who are hanging on for higher prices.

The demand for work clothing which continues to come from every big industrial center, and the production of the stability of the present manufacturing activity.

COMMUNITY NEWS.

having real utility or permanent value are not in strong demand.

CHICAGO.
CHICAGO, Dec. 1.—Approach of the holidays is heralded here by Christmas shop window displays in many stores.

KANSAS CITY.
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Dec. 1.—Oil consumption and prices are irregular in the mid-continental field today. There is an easy tone in gasoline, demand not being up to the expectations of refiners as there is little business in sight.

APPLIES.
SEATTLE, Dec. 1.—Car shortage on American lines ending in Seattle have driven Washington apple growers to frantic efforts to save their crops of winter-keeping commercial fruit. Cold storage space is filled at tide-water. Shipments are being made as rapidly as ships and demand will allow. About 200,000 boxes have moved in the last thirty days to the United Kingdom. The largest single shipment of the season, 75,000 boxes, left Saturday for Liverpool. Freight cars available at apple producing points are only about a fourth of normal.

STEEL.
PITTSBURGH, Pa., Dec. 1.—Steel ingot production made a better showing last month than in October, when the output was at the rate of about 40,000,000 tons a year. Indications point to an increase in output, but decrease in output.

WHEELING.
WHEELING, W. Va., Dec. 1.—The American Sheet and Tin Plate Company's plant at Martins Ferry has increased production from 67 to 86 per cent.

YOUNGSTOWN.
YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, Dec. 1.—Material for the rehabilitation of the Brier Hill Steel Company's Xiles works is being delivered here. The work will involve an expenditure of about $1,000,000.

COAL AND COKE.
ALTOONA, Pa., Dec. 1.—Coal operators in the Central Pennsylvania field are containing bitterly of a severe coal shortage. Production figures, however, show heavy loadings. During the week ended November 19 production of the district was 1,545,000 tons, compared with 1,787 in the preceding week.

UNIONTOWN.
UNIONTOWN, Pa., Dec. 1.—The coal and coke market is breaking. Ordinary grades of Connellsville coal have sold at $2.25 a ton, and by product coal at $2.30 a ton. Spot furnace coke has sold at $2.25. Production is in excess of demand and the break was expected. Declining prices may cause some of the smaller plants with high operating costs.

Big Herring Hauls Reported in North
The hearing hauls of the Pacific Coast may yet rival the North Sea. According to Grosche-Miller, there has been some very large catches of herring made off the coast of California. In fact, the firm says that they themselves have caught as much as 200 tons of herring in one day which would probably mean 1,500,000 fish. Their total catch during the season has been about 10,000 tons, about the middle of October and ends about the middle of February, was in the neighborhood of 50,000 tons, about 400,000,000 fish.

Kerosene Prices Pushed Too Far
While there was a continued good demand for kerosene in the past week, it began to look as if the price had been pushed up a little too far, and there was a softness in the refinery markets with quotations shade lower, according to the local market. The price of kerosene was advanced at a time when there was no chance of security and following a period of dullness that had caused refiners to hold down their production as much as possible.

Esthonia Increases Acreage of Flax
The growing of flax, which declined considerably during the war, is rapidly recovering. Flax planted this year covers twice the area of that planted in 1921, and it is expected that it will be of better quality.

TRIBUNE IS HOST TO 200 NEWSBOYS AT "SWELL FEED"

Annual Thanksgiving Dinner
With Trimmings and Few Speeches, Is Given.

By FRANCES MONTGOMERY.

"Chee, gang, didn't we knock a swell feed?"

You could hear it everywhere as they oozed from the cafeteria where they had been slowing away the food, turkey, ice cream, everything, for just exactly one hour and a half by the clock.

The TRIBUNE newsboys had had their annual Thanksgiving dinner and believe them, it was SOME dinner.

At twelve sharp and the same kind of appetites, 200 of them slid into their seats at Leighton's Cafeteria, and tucked in the napkins and the bill of fare. There were bouquets on the table and mince pie.

Oh, boy! All the "Bills" and "Patsys" and "Joos" were there in a bunch and it was "hurray boys" from beginning to end. Everybody got a cheer from the gang whenever they showed their faces and when the dinner weren't eating, they were grinning.

"Oh, man! Look at that turkey! Ain't that the bird's bonnet!" This from the youngest newsboy whose nose just grazed the horizon of the provolone snowy cloth upon which rested his plate piled high with turkey and all the trimmings.

TRIBUNE newsboys are of the young, light and dark, combed and uncombed, fat and slim, but as to appetites they fell in line and stepped into one big class.

NO RED HEADS. Only when George Bailey, one of the newsboys, took the floor and sang a popular song or when there was a special speech or music, were the 200 heads raised from the table.

We looked in vain for a real red headed newsboy and there wasn't a single one in the whole crowd. What became of the boy with the shock of red hair and the freckles?

And sure! You should have seen those little fellows eye the two pretty waitresses who, behind their brass buttons and a star apiece, leaned against the wall and ached to set their teeth into a fat juicy drumstick.

An excited newsboy with both cheeks full of food and a ribbon of gravy from ear to ear, gives the fellow next to him a dig in the ribs and says: "What's the matter, you over here without any teeth?"

His name's Roast Beef! And then the gang whooped it up again. To the irresistible strains from a jazz orchestra white capped and aproned waiters, directed by manager George C. Heller of Leighton's, brought more and more food and the main conversation was "Have you had enough to eat?" and "No, not quite."

REAL ICE CREAM. Turkey may come and turkey may go, but if you want our opinion, for winning, his choicest selection and offering, you'd think there's nothing like handing the small boy a double-deck portion of honest-to-goodness ice cream. And there was ice cream in three colors and as many flavors: vanilla, chocolate and strawberry and the newsboy came very near getting his choice.

It was at this time we learned "why" for the two husky policemen. The pretty waitress who served the ice-cream was almost mobbed and the arm of the law was prepared. It was a near panic.

It was a manly and orderly 200 which filed out of the dining room to the street and as they each passed the cashier's desk they were given an apple and an orange. Safe to say there would be no fruit taken off by a newsboy for a few hours at least, but coat pockets bulged and coat buttons refused to connect with buttonholes.

There was a stampede for toothpicks and not a well-fed newsboy failed to place one in a plutocratic angle between his smiling lips for the whole Thanksgiving world to see.

Hungry? Well, Here's How They Dined

made them know the newsboy, and knew that however much he may later emulate Horatio Alger's heroes, and abandon his stack of papers to listen patiently to addresses by fellow-directors of large financial institutions, his present interest lies in action and not in words.

In a few words, Joseph R. Knowland, publisher of The TRIBUNE, told the newsboys that the loyalty and efficiency of the sales department was one of the reasons for The TRIBUNE's success, and that it was the same spirit on the part of other citizens as that shown by The TRIBUNE sales force — the willingness to work hard and conscientiously for whatever institution they represent — that is making Oakland a great city.

Commissioner Frank C. Colbourne of the department of public health and safety, told the boys to count on him at all times as their friend. "You are all fundamentally right," he said. "And you are in the class of boosters and optimists who are putting the city ahead."

Tributes were paid to the newsboys and their work by other speakers, including W. F. D. Brown, circulation manager of The TRIBUNE; Jack E. McGarry, in charge of street sales; and Ed Ryan, his assistant.

The entertainment program included "jazz" selections by orchestra, led by W. R. Crosby and "Cupid" Robinson, a saxophone solo by Robinson, and vocal solos by George Bailey.

Davie to Speak at Big Oroville Show
Major John L. Davie departed this morning for Oroville, where he will appear by special invitation at the orange and olive show in that city. The mayor of Oroville and the Oroville Chamber of Commerce rounded to meet Major Davie at the station, with a brass band and everything. Major Davie will depart tomorrow.

SPEECHES FEW
There were a few speeches, but these were brief. For those who

City Not Liable To Citizen Shot In Bandit Chase

If a policeman in the course of his duty accidentally shoots a citizen, the citizen has no recourse for damages unless he can get a verdict against the policeman. The city of Oakland is not liable.

This opinion was given to the city officials today by City Attorney Leon E. Gray, as the result of a query from Charles Chimento, the duck hunter wounded during the East Oakland bandit roundup October 20. The bandits were escaping with Captain Thorwald Brown and a police squad in pursuit. A gun battle ensued, two of the bandits being killed outright. Chimento, starting for a duck hunt, watched the battle; but as he had the gun in his hand several policemen mistook him, for a bandit and shot him twice. Chimento recently suggested that the city pay his medical bill.

Board Considers 43 School Sites

Forty-three tentative sites for schools, under the projected new bond issue, were presented to the committee of the whole of the board of education today by the sites committee, comprising Directors Harry Boyle, J. F. Chandler and G. W. Hatch. These sites will be studied and from them, it is asserted, will be drawn the aggregation which will be recommended for the program of the coming school bond issue.

The forty-three sites will not be made public. Appraisals of the sites will follow shortly, it is said.
